June 4, 1761. NUMB. 1693.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Juſt publiſhed, and ready to be delivered to the Subſcribers, by Mr. Andrew Stewart, at a Corner of Black-Horſe-Alley, in Second-ſtreet, Philadelphia,

A TREATISE of SUBTENSIAL PLAIN TRIGONOMETRY, applied to Navigation and Surveying. 1. Is given, A Demonſtration of the Grounds of the Method. 2. The Structure of the Sliding Rule, and the Numeration of its Lines. 3. Plain Trigonometry, Rectangular and Oblique. 4. The common Caſes in Navigation wrought by the Sliding Rule, and alſo by Arithmetic, in a very conciſe Manner, with very few Figures. 5. Three amuſing Queſtions. 6. A Table of Numbers to every Degree, and every five Minutes of a Degree, from 1 Degree to 90. By the Numbers in this Table, Trigonometry, both Rectangular and Oblique, are wrought. And having two Sides, and their contained Angle given (of any plain Triangle, in any Meaſure) the Area is found at two Operations by Multiplication, with a very few Figures. I have ſet many Examples for caſting up the Content of Land by this excellent Method, from the Field Account, without Plotting. By this Method the Content will be as true as the Lines are meaſured, and the Angles taken. 7. Menſuration of Maſons Work, both by Pen and Sliding Rule, by a conciſe new Method. 8. A Solution of Rota; or Ariſtotle's Wheel. 9. A brief Diſcourſe on Gravity, ſhewing the Author's Opinion of the Cauſe of that Power, and proving it not to be from the Influence of Bodies on the Æther, as ſet forth by ſome late Authors. The whole very conciſe, and delineated on 7 Copperplates, by Thomas Abel.

N. B. The Subſcribers at Newark, New Barbadoes Neck, and Second River, in New-Jerſey, are deſired to ſend to New-York for their Books, when they ſee them adverтiſed in the New-York Papers; and thoſe at Perth-Amboy, and at and near Woodbridge, to receive theirs at James Parker's in Woodbridge.

There are a few Books more than is ſubſcribed for, to be diſpoſed of by the ſaid Stewart; ſome in Half-binding at a Dollar, and ſome ſtitched in Paper, at Seven Shillings each Book.

Juſt Publiſhed,

THE FARMER's COMPANION; inſtructing how to run Land without a Compaſs, and to plat the ſame in an eaſy Manner. The Humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to his Majeſty on Wedneſday, the 4th Day of March, 1761.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

The tender Concern which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to expreſs for the Rights and Liberties of Your People, and for the impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice, fills our Minds with the ſincereſt Gratitude. We look upon Your wiſe and juſt Sentiments, concerning the Independency and Uprightneſs of the Judges of the Land, as the ſtrongeſt Proof of what Your Majeſty has formerly declared to us, in Words the moſt affectionate that ever came from the Throne, that the civil and religious Rights of Your Subjects are equally dear to You with the moſt valuable of Your Royal Prerogatives. At the ſame Time, nothing can be a nobler Inſtance of Your true Greatneſs of Mind, than to eſteem theſe Principles, as they truly are, the moſt conducive to the Honour of the Crown.

We will not fail to take into our Conſideration this important Object of the Continuance of the Judges, notwithſtanding any Demiſe of the Crown; and to do every Thing, on our Part, to make Your Majeſty's public-ſpirited Intentions effectual: Happy, in having an Opportunity to do this by Your Majeſty's free and voluntary Recommendation; and forming the moſt ardent Vows, that the Event, wherein the Effect of ſuch a Proviſion will be experienced, may, by the Goodneſs of Providence to theſe Kingdoms, be removed for a long Courſe of Years.

Permit us, on this Occaſion, to renew to Your Majeſty the moſt unfeigned Aſſurances of our unviolable Duty and Affection; and to expreſs our thankful Acknowledgments for Your gracious Approbation of our Proceedings hitherto. Nothing can equal our Zeal for Your Majeſty's Support; nor ſhall any Thing be wanting, that depends upon us, to bring this Seſſion to a ſpeedy and happy Concluſion, anſwerable to Your Majeſty's juſt Expectations."

Vienna, March 9. Though the Seaſon for taking the Field advances faſt, our Generals ſeem to be in no Hurry to form the Army. We continue to ſend Stores and Implements of War to our Forces, but the Badneſs of the Roads in Moravia and Bohemia will ſcarce ſuffer them to paſs. The greateſt Part of our large Magazine at Molwitz in Sileſia hath been ſpoilt by the heavy Rains. Theſe Inconveniences, and ſome others ſtill more embarraſſing, but not proper to be made public, which however we ſhall endeavour to remedy, retard the Commencement of our hoſtile Operations.

Francfort, March 14. The Allies have taken a Regiment of French Troops at Friedberg.

The Prince of Deux Ponts has reſigned the Command of the Army of the Empire, in which he is ſucceeded by Marſhal Serbelloni.

Vienna, March 11. Baron Laudohn ſet out Yeſterday to take the Command of the Troops in Sileſia. M. Daun will ſet out the 14*th or* 15*th. M. Serbelloni will command the Army of the Empire, in the Room of the Prince of Deux Ponts. Three Trains of Artillery are ſet out ſucceſſively for Bohemia, and will be followed by a fourth. A Ray of Hope appears, that Things may yet be amicably adjuſted in Italy. It is ſaid, that under Colour of pacific Negociations, the Court of France has propoſed a Marriage between his Catholic Majeſty and the Archdutcheſs Maria Anna, born the* 6*th of October* 1738; in Conſideration of which, certain Arrangements may take Place, and our Court receive a large Supply in ready Money.

Hanover, March 20. On the Approach of M. de Colignon, the French are retired from Nordheim to Gottingen, with all that they could carry off. Lord Granby is advanced towards Gieſſen and Dillenbourg, to make a Diverſion on that Side favourable to the Corps of the Hereditary Prince, who has been able to make Head againſt all the Troops the Enemies could aſſemble in the Neighbourhood of Bergen.

Berlin, March 17. Another large Train of Artillery, with all Sorts of Ammunition, and ſome new Pontoons, have been ſent this Week from our Arſenal for the King's Army in Saxony. Several General Officers, who were come here to ſettle ſome private Affairs, are ſet out in Haſte to join ſaid Army, where Prince Henry is expected from Glogau towards the End of this Week, to conſult with his Majeſty, and fix the Quarters where the Operations of the Campaign ſhall begin.

Mentz, March 18. A French Officer, who upon the falſe Report of ſome Peaſants ſet Fire to a conſiderable Magazine near Zeigenhayn, is juſt now arreſted by Order of M. Broglio; and 'tis ſaid he will be conducted to the Baſtile.

Hague, March 24. By Letters from the Army under Prince Ferdinand we underſtand, that the main Body had its Poſition, on the 20th Inſtant, upon the Heights of Hombourg: That his Serene Highneſs had his Head Quarters ſtill at Schweinſberg, the Marquis of Granby at Kirchayn, Gen. Hardenberg behind Redechen and Schweinſberg, and that the Hereditary Prince was advanced with his Corps towards Grunberg. At the ſame Time the Enemy occupied the Country along the Lahne, from Galdenbach to Allendorff, Lich, Hungen, and Laubach.

The Siege of Ziegenhayn ſtill continued. There are no certain Accounts, in Relation to that of Caſſel; but it is ſaid, that the French Garriſon had made lately two very unſucceſsful Sallies.

LONDON, March 24.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated March 17.

'Our Advices from London run thus: "There are Affairs of the laſt Importance upon the Carpet. There is a Project on Foot for ſecularizing the Biſhopricks of Hildeſheim, Munſter, Paderborn, &c. and for reviving the King of Pruſſia's Claims to Gueldres and Eaſt Friſeland. The Plan for theſe Purpoſes, which has been ſent hither by the King of Pruſſia, is much liked; but it cannot be carried into Execution till we know what turn Affairs will take in Heſſe. As to the King of Pruſſia's Claims to Eaſt-Friſeland and Gueldres, it is only meant to revive them at the Concluſion of the Peace, in order to make the Dutch repent, 1. Their not doing what they owe to the King of Pruſſia. 2. Their not fulfilling their Engagements with our Court; and 3. Their taking openly the Part of France. The Application made by Mr. Hopp, the Dutch Miniſter, in the Name of his Maſters, for Indemnification for the French Frigate the Felicite, is a convincing Proof that France will ſoon dictate the Reſolutions of the States General. Their High Mightineſſes obſerve a profound Silence with Regard to the Capture of the Prince of Orange Packet in October laſt, within their Territory, of which Mr. Yorke demanded Reſtitution in vain. Lord Holderneſſe hath told Mr. Hopp, that the French did by taking the Packet Boat above-mentioned, and that when their High Mightineſſes ſhould give the Satisfaction on that Head, they ſhould have the Satisfaction they aſked relative to the Felicite Frigate."

Newcaſtle, March 10. The Diſturbance in our Neighbourhood, about balloting for a few Vacancies in the Militia, hath already been mentioned. The Deputy-Lieutenants and other Magiſtrates prevailed on the Rioters to go quietly Home that Night, viz. Saturday the 28th ult. Since which the Pit-men, Waggon-men, Huſbandmen and Servants, in the County of Northumberland (for of ſuch the Mob chiefly conſiſted) having taken it into their Heads, that the Durham People of their Station had all got clear of the Militia, by the Riſe they had made; on Monday the ſecond Inſtant aſſembled in great Numbers at Morpeth, and not meeting with ſuch Indulgence as they expected, obliged the Deputy-Lieutenants and Juſtices to quit their Duty for their own Safety, no Military Force being at Hand. Then the Rioters got all the Liſts and Books relative to the Militia from the Conſtables, and burnt them before their Eyes. The next Day they went to Whittingham, 20 Miles up the Country, and acted in much the ſame Manner. Fluſhed with Succeſs, and reinforced to 4 or 5000, they attempted the like Uſage at Hexham Yeſterday: But the Juſtices finding gentle Methods would not avail, had ordered Sir Ralph Milbank's Battalion of Yorkſhire Militia up to Hexham the Day before, from this Town. About Eleven o'Clock the Mob aſſembled, and the Militia were all drawn out before them. The Gentlemen ſtill entreated the Rioters to be quiet, but all to no Purpoſe, for they aſſaulted and ſtruck ſeveral of the Militia, though they had their Pieces loaded, and their Bayonets fixed. In ſhort, the Juſtices were obliged to read the Riot Act, and though they allowed them near an Hour after to diſperſe, the Militia were at laſt ordered to fire among them three Times. The firſt Fire they ſent into the Air, the next among their Legs; but the Mob being not yet intimidated, they were ordered to level the third Fire. Nineteen Perſons were killed on the Spot, and about fifty wounded. Enſign Hart of the Militia, and a private Man were alſo killed. There has not been ſuch a Scene of Blood-ſhed this Century in this Country. However, it is to be hoped the worſt is over, as they are now pretty well ſettled again. Major Crow, who commanded the Militia, is much commended for his gallant, as well as his humane Behaviour, on this Occaſion.

DUBLIN, April 4.

Extract of a private Letter from London, March 27.

"Thurſday his Excellency the Earl of Halifax ſent to the Lord Chancellor to his Country Seat, to get an Order to ſend a Commiſſion to Ireland for iſſuing the Writs to elect a new Parliament for that Kingdom; which you may probably have by this Poſt. It is reported, that his Excellency will go very ſoon to Ireland, to enquire into the State of that Nation, to have Matters properly prepared againſt the Meeting of Parliament; that his Excellency will reſide two Years in Ireland without returning to England; and that George William Hamilton of Lincoln's Inn, Eſq; a Lord of Trade and Plantations, will be his firſt Secretary. This Gentleman, as well as his Excellency, is very well ſkilled in the Commerce of all Parts of the World; and therefore it is hoped, that his Lordſhip in his moſt extenſive Knowledge of Trade and Manufactures, will open the Eyes of the People of England, and convince them, that the Way to make Great-Britain a greater and richer Nation, will be, by giving more Liberty of Trade, and promoting the Manufactures of Ireland, which will diſtreſs the French more than any ſucceſsful Wars that may be carried on againſt them."

Extract of a Letter from Cork, dated March 31, 1761.

"A Quarter after Twelve this Day, a Shock of an Earthquake was felt here, in the Exchange, in the Merchant's Coffee-Houſe, and from the Beginning of the Red-Houſe-walk to the Eaſt Marſh, between the Gores only, juſt as it was in November 1755; but allowed to have been more violent by all that felt it. It did not continue above one Minute, undulating from Eaſt to Weſt, and vice verſa."

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) MAY 6.

Tueſday laſt week Mr. Robert Clague, mate, with four ſailors belonging to the ſhip Mancheſter, Captain Chambers, went down in the ſhip's boat to Fort-Johnſon on ſome buſineſs, and were on their return overtaken by a ſquall, in which it is thought they all periſhed, as none of them have ſince been heard of.

On Thurſday laſt Major Preſcott, Captain Sawyer, with two other officers, ſerjeants, and a few private men, belonging to Colonel Burton's regiment, arrived here from New-York. On Saturday morning, very early, the Major ſet out for the army, and arrived at Congarees on Sunday about noon, and would join the regiment at the encampment the ſame evening. Captain Sawyer, with the other officers, and ſome men draughted from thoſe left in town, are now on their march to the weſtward.

His Excellency General Amherſt has given orders to Colonel Byrd to complete his (the Virginia) regiment with all poſſible diſpatch, and to march immediately againſt the Cherokees. His Excellency has likewiſe given orders to ſupply the ſaid regiment with Proviſions, &c. at his Majeſty's expence.

Camp at Congarees, Sunday, May 3. The laſt diviſion marches at four this morning, for the fort at Ninety-Six. Colonel Middleton's regiment, with which Colonel Grant expreſſes great Satisfaction, amounts in the whole to about 520 rank and file: The regulars are not quite 1300. We hear the rangers are at Ninety-Six, and are complete; about 400 of them it is ſaid will join the army, while the remaining 200 are to be employed in ſcouts, and ranging for the protection of the ſettlements againſt any inroad of the enemy. Capt. Colbert, with his Chickeſaws, is arrived at the camp at Ninety-Six, and has delivered to Major Moultrie two Cherokee ſcalps, which they took near Old Keowee.----The Colonel ſaw every thing in the beſt order before he ſet off, plenty of live cattle, flour, and every other neceſſary for the campaign.

We hear the Chickeſaws expreſſed a little uneaſineſs about ſome ſilver arm-bands not arriving at Auguſta before they ſet out, which the Governor has ſince ſent up.

On Monday the 4th inſt. about half an hour paſt two P. M. an hour and an half after new moon, and very near the time of low water, a moſt violent whirlwind of that kind, commonly known under the title of Typhones, paſſed down Aſhley-river, and fell upon the ſhipping in Rebellion-road with ſuch fury and violence as to threaten the deſtruction of the whole fleet. In the ſhip news below is an account of the damage done there by it.

This terrible phænomenon was firſt ſeen by many of the inhabitants of Charleſtown coming down Wappoo-creek, reſembling a large column of ſmoke and vapour, whoſe motion was very irregular and tumultuous, as well as that of the neighbouring clouds, which appeared to be driving down in nearly the ſame direction (from S. W.) and with great ſwiftneſs; the quantity of vapour which compoſed this impetuous column and its prodigious velocity, gave it ſuch a ſurpriſing momentum, as to plough Aſhley-river to the bottom, and lay the channel bare, of which many people were eye-witneſſes. This occaſioned ſo great and ſudden a flux and reflux as to float many canoes, boats, pettiaugres, and even ſchooners and ſloops, which were then lying dry, and at a diſtance from the tide. When it was coming down Aſhley-river, it made ſo great a noiſe as to be heard by moſt of the people in town, which was taken by ſome for a conſtant thunder; its diameter at that time has generally been judged to be about 300 fathoms, and its height to a perſon in Broad-ſtreet to be about 35 degrees, though it encreaſed as it went towards the Road; when it came down towards White-Point, though it was then nearly in the middle of Aſhley-river, it impelled ſuch a vaſt body of water out of its place, as to make the tide run for an inſtant ſeveral feet perpendicular in all the docks along the Bay, and even up Cooper-river, above Mr. Gadſden's. About this time it was met by another guſt which came down Cooper-river; this was not of equal ſtrength or impetuoſity with the other, but upon their meeting together, the tumultuous and whirling agitations of the air were ſeemingly much greater, inſomuch that the froth and vapour ſeemed to be thrown up to the apparent height of 35 or 40 degrees towards the middle, while the clouds that were driving in all directions to this place ſeemed to be precipitated, and whirled round at the ſame time with incredible velocity: juſt after this it fell on the ſhipping in the Road, and was ſcarce three minutes in its paſſage; the diſtance is near two leagues; five veſſels were ſunk outright, and his Majeſty's ſhip Dolphin with many others loſt their maſts. All this great damage to the ſhipping, which is alone reckoned at twenty thouſand pounds ſterling, was done almoſt inſtantaneouſly, and ſome of thoſe that were ſunk, were buried in the water ſo ſuddenly as ſcarce to give ſufficient time to thoſe that were below to get upon deck.---Whether was this done by the immenſe weight of this column preſſing them inſtantaneouſly into the deep? Or was it done by the water being forced ſuddenly from under them, and thereby letting them ſink ſo low, as to be immediately covered and ingulphed by the lateral maſs of water?---The ſtrong guſt from the N. E. which checked the progreſs of this pillar of deſtruction in its way from Wappoo creek, ſeems to have been ſent by providence for the preſervation of Charles-Town, which, had it kept its then direction, muſt have been driven before it like chaff. Another memorable inſtance of the Divine Favour is the ſmall number loſt that were on board the veſſels in the road, of whom we cannot learn there were more than four, viz. Mr. Nathaniel Polhill of Georgia, a paſſenger in the Polly and Betſey, capt. Muir, and Robert Kay, captain Muir's nephew, a ſailor on board the Elizabeth, captain Mallard, and a boy belonging to the Succeſs, capt. Clarke.

From the ſhortneſs of the time we cannot give a particular account of the riſe and entire progreſs of this tremenduous column. About noon it was ſeen near Spoon-Savannah, upwards of 30 miles W. by S. from Charleſtown. It deſtroyed Mr. George Sommers's houſes on his plantation at Stono, and on James-Iſland carried away a large new two ſtory houſe, with two ſtacks of brick chimnies, belonging to the eſtate of the late Mr. Hutſon, and all the Negroe-houſes, and other buildings, on the plantation: Mr. William Glen's buildings, &c. were ſerved in the ſame manner, and it carried off the roof of Mr. Henderſon's houſe, and all the out-houſes. Many, both white people and Negroes, were killed or hurt; nor did the cattle eſcape, numbers of which were found dead in the fields. In ſeveral parts of its courſe it left an avenue of a great width, from which every tree and ſhrub was torn up; great quantities of leaves, branches, and large limbs of trees were ſeen furiouſly driven about and agitated in the body of the column as it paſſed along.

The ſky was over-caſt and cloudy all the forenoon of Monday, and about one o'clock it began to thunder, and continued more or leſs till after three. As ſoon as the damage done in the road was perceived, the governor ſent orders to the commiſſary to provide and get down as many boats and hands as poſſible; every body ſeemed to vie with each other who ſhould give the firſt and moſt effectual aſſiſtance. The fleet, as it was the largeſt and fineſt, was likewiſe thought to be the richeſt that ever was cleared out from Charleſtown. By four o'clock the wind was quite fallen, the ſun ſhone out, and the ſky was clear and ſerene; we could ſcarce believe that ſuch a dreadful ſcene had been ſo recently exhibited, were not the ſinking and diſmantled veſſels ſo many ſtriking and melancholy proofs of its reality.

A ſtorm of this kind has ſeldom or never been known in Charleſtown; but the veſtiges of ſuch are to be ſeen in the woods in more places than one, both in this and the neighbouring provinces.

Veſſels in Rebellion Road, on Monday, May 4, deſtroyed or hurt in the Storm.

Loſt maintop-maſt 1. Ship Harrietta, John Raines, for London.

Sunk 5. Diſmaſted, &c. 12. Safe, or received little hurt, 25. Total in Rebellion-Road 42 veſſels.

The ſnow Two Friends, Ireland, was at Hobcaw; the brig Carolina, Colcock, and the ſnow Hawke, Taylor, were not gone down.

The Governor has applied to James Campbell, Eſq; of the Nightingale, commanding his Majeſty's ſhips here, on a petition from the merchants, that another man of war may be appointed as convoy to ſuch veſſels as are able to proceed to ſea; and we hear Captain Campbell has appointed Capt. Scott, in his Majeſty's Ship Scarborough, for that purpoſe, who will be ready to ſail Tueſday next, 12th Inſt. Moſt of the diſabled ſhips have been towed up.

No certain eſtimation can as yet be made of the damage done the veſſels and cargoes; the whole loſs it is feared will much exceed 20 000 l. Sterling.

The ſnow Rebecca. Archibald Stewart, maſter, from Philadelphia, for this Port, was wrecked on the bar, on Thurſday laſt.

The general Aſſembly of North-Carolina have paſſed an act, which governor Dobbs has been enabled to give his aſſent to, for raiſing 20,000 l. for levying, cloathing and paying 500 men to December next, to be employed according to General Amherſt's orders. Hugh Waddel, Eſq; is appointed colonel, and on Friday laſt arrived here, to purchaſe cloathing, &c. for his Regiment, which is raiſing with great diſpatch; the company ſtationed at Fort Dobbs is likewiſe continued, and not included in the above number: The bounty is Five Pounds proclamation Money. James Moore, Eſq; is lieutenant-colonel; and------ Bailie, Eſq; major.

Fort Prince George, Keowee, April 27. "We have got in ſeveral more priſoners. Captain M'Intoſh, ſince his arrival here, February 10, has redeemed 113 of thoſe unhappy people from ſlavery; above 70 are men, and the reſt women and children. The Indians ſay they have above 50 or 60 ſtill in their poſſeſſion, who they pretend are either ſick or out hunting with their maſters, but promiſe to bring them in to Captain M'Intoſh as ſoon as poſſible. Tiftoe would have ſettled again at Keowee, about a month ago, if we could have ſpared him any proviſion; but inſtead of plenty, the women and children now in this fort have been on ſhort allowance ever ſince they were redeemed. On the 21ſt inſtant an Indian woman was killed and ſcalped, and a boy wounded at Keowee, ſuppoſed to be done by the Chickeſaws: The woman and boy were left by Tiftoe to take care of his horſes and other effects, till his return from the Middle-Settlements and Overhills, whither he is gone to collect and bring down his people, with ſome corn to plant. We have not above a month's flour, tho' no ſcarcity of meat.

"From the firſt moment the Cherokees knew of Captain M'Intoſh's arrival here, none of them have gone out againſt the ſettlements, nor have they carried any white priſoners to the French."

NEW-LONDON, May 22.

Yeſterday returned here the Schooner Fox,--------Bowditch, late Maſter; which Veſſel ſailed from this Port the latter End of March laſt, for the Weſt Indies, and was taken near Bermuda, by a French Frigate bound to France, who after taking out the Captain, Mate, and all the Hands except ſix, they left her to the Care of 12 Frenchmen; but ſoon after, the Engliſhmen found Means to diſpatch two of the Enemy, and overcame the remainder. She was navigated hither by one Robert Niles, and has brought in all her Horſes.

BOSTON, May 25.

Tueſday laſt put into this Port the Ship Bayard, of 500 Tons, Joſeph Cheeſman, Maſter: She ſailed from Virginia on the 19th of April laſt, bound to Hull, in England; but on the 16th, 17th and 18th Inſtant, met with violent Gales of Wind, and ſprung a Leak, ſo that ſhe made two Feet of Water every Half Hour, and they were obliged to throw overboard 4 or 500 Barrels of Tar, Turpentine, and other Parts of her Cargo, to prevent her foundering; being then in Lat. 41: 30, and Long. 61, they ſtood away for this Port to refit.

Saturday laſt a Veſſel arrived at Marblehead, in 39 Days from Liſbon, the Maſter of which confirms the Account of the Earthquake mentioned in our laſt.

NEW-YORK, JUNE 1.

Thurſday Night laſt three Veſſels with King's Stores on board, arrived at Sandy-Hook, in 16 Days from Halifax: They came out, with two others, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Penzance of 44 Guns, John Boyd, Eſq; Commander. Major Merry, now of Montgomery's Regiment, came Paſſenger in one of the above Veſſels, and we hear he ſoon ſets out for his Regiment that lately ſailed from hence for the Weſt-Indies.

The Day that the above-mentioned Veſſels ſailed from Halifax, a Battalion of the Royal Americans ſailed from thence for Quebec, under Convoy of a Man of War.

His Majeſty's Ship the Penzance arrived here on Saturday laſt.

We have an Account from Liſbon, of the 10th of March, of Capt. Kennedy's having taken, after a ſmart Engagement, a new Ship of 400 Tons, from Bourdeaux bound to Hiſpaniola, laden with Wine, Brandy and Flour; Captain Kennedy had only two Men wounded, and the French two Men killed, and ſix wounded.

We hear from New-Jerſey, that notwithſtanding the Bounty for Volunteers is ſomething leſs than it has been for two or three Years paſt, and the Scarcity of Men there, the Number agreed on by that Government will probably be raiſed; for, by the indefatigable Induſtry of the Officers concerned therein, their new Levies are very near compleated.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 4.

Captain Banning, late of the Schooner Friendſhip, of Maryland, writes from Martinico, April 23, that he was taken on his Paſſage to Barbados, and ſent in there, the 16th of that Month: That a Privateer Brig was then fitting out, deſigned for this Coaſt: That Two of our Men of War had appeared off St. Pierre's, one as a Flag of Truce, and ſent in her Boats with the Priſoners, which were detained, on Pretence that ſhe was cruiſing with the other Man of War, who had taken a Ship going in there: And that they expected the Engliſh Fleet daily, and were making what Preparations they could againſt an Attack.

Captain Pyne, of the Dreadnought, belonging to St. Chriſtophers, writes from Virginia, That he was taken by a French Frigate in Lat. 26, 12, which had alſo taken Captain Williams, in a Privateer likewiſe of St. Chriſtophers; Captain Baldwin, in a Schooner bound to New-England; and two Veſſels from Monto Chriſti for New-York. And that a Brig of 14 Guns, and 175 Men, in Lat. 32, 33, took Captain Jones, in a Ship from Carolina; two Veſſels belonging to New-York; and was in Chace of a Ship.

Captain Mead for Barbados, and Captain Clarke for Guadaloupe, both from Piſcataqua, are taken by the French.

Extract of a Letter from Wincheſter, May 26, 1761.

"We are now on the March to the Southward; but how far we ſhall proceed againſt the Cherokees, is not known. They received a Stroke lately from the Northern Indians, within a Mile of Fort Chiſſel, our advanced Poſt. They attacked their Camp in the Night, killed ſix on the Spot, and wounded a great many. Next Morning the Cherokees delivered up their Women and wounded Men into the Hands of Major Lewis, and begged he would take Care of them, until they ſhould look who had hurt them."

SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY, for raiſing the Sum of Five Hundred and Sixty-two Pounds, Ten Shillings, for paying the Arrears due to a Company of RANGERS, raiſed in Tulpenhocon, &c.

A LOTTERY for raiſing the Sum of 450 l. for the Uſe of the Preſbyterian Church in Middletown, Cheſter County.

THE Members of the Preſbyterian Church in Middletown, find themſelves under a Neceſſity in this Way to ſollicit the Aſſiſtance of the Publick, to enable them to rebuild their Place of Worſhip. Their Claim to a favourable Reception, they preſume, is at leaſt equal to any that hath been yet offered. As a Church, there is ſcarce any more ancient in the Province, of the ſame Communion. The Sum which they aim at is moderate; the Uſe of which is not to complete, to enlarge, or to ornament their Place of Worſhip: For had they a Place, however plain or unadorned, which could poſſibly continue much longer to anſwer that Purpoſe, the Publick had not now been troubled with this Application----But to prevent their Diſſolution as a religious Society. This Conſideration they beg Leave to think, intitles them in ſome Degree to general Encouragement, and will, it is hoped, procure them the Approbation, and, as far as may be, the good Offices of every pious and well diſpoſed Perſon.

The Second Edition, publiſhed by Requeſt. To which is prefixed, A brief Account of the Life, Character and Death, of the AUTHOR. By DAVID BOSTWICK, A. M. Miniſter of the Preſbyterian Congregation in New-York.

Philadelphia, June 8, 1761.

WHEREAS by an Act of General Aſſembly of this Province, the following Gentlemen, viz. James Coultas, Henry Pawling, David Davis, William Palmer, Mordecai Moore, Jonathan Coats, Joſeph Millard, William Bird, Francis Parvin, Benjamin Lightfoot, and Iſaac Levan, together with us the Subſcribers, were nominated and appointed Commiſſioners for clearing and rendering the River Schuylkill navigable, as by the ſaid Act at large appears. Therefore, as the Seaſon now advances, we have appointed Monday the 29th of this Inſt. for the Commiſſioners to meet at Chriſtopher Robbins's, in Whitemarſh, in order to ſettle a Plan for carrying the ſaid Act into Execution, and if any Perſons ſkilled in blowing and removing of Rocks will give their Attendance, they may meet with Employment. JOHN HUGHES, JOHN POTTS, JOSEPH FOX, SAMUEL RHOADS. ¶

WHEREAS, by Virtue of an Act of the Legiſlature of the Province of New-Jerſey, a Lottery was erected in the Year 1759, for raiſing the Sum of Six Hundred Pounds, towards repaying a Sum of Money advanced by that Government for purchaſing the Claims of Indians to Lands therein; which Lottery was to have been drawn in October 1759; but a ſufficient Number of Tickets not being diſpoſed of, together with the Death of one of the Managers, the ſaid Lottery then dropped; whereupon the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province have thought fit again to paſs an Act for a new Lottery, wherein all the Adventurers in the firſt were to be intitled to the ſame Chance they were to have had in that; of which the following is the SCHEME, viz.

Number of Prizes.		Value in Pieces of Eight.		Total Value.

3200 Tickets at Four Dollars each,				12,800

The Prizes to be intire, as the Fifteen per Cent. is to be firſt deducted out of the whole Sum.---In the above Scheme there are not quite three and a half Blanks to a Prize; and when it is rightly conſidered how much Chriſtian Blood this Purchaſe probably ſaved, as the Maſſacres ſo frequent till that Time, on the Frontiers of New-York, Pennſylvania, and that Government ſufficiently teſtify, and which, after that Purchaſe, entirely ceaſed, the Indians having made the Want of it their chief Plea for thoſe Hoſtilities; it is hoped thoſe Governments, as well as New-Jerſey, will chearfully become Adventurers in this Lottery, and eſpecially as it is the firſt erected there by publick Authority. The Drawing, by Law, is not to exceed the End of October next; but the Managers propoſe drawing the firſt Day of Auguſt next, if it can be filled by that Time; and many of the Tickets are already diſpoſed of. The fortunate Numbers to be printed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, and Parker's New-York Gazette.

Tickets are now diſpoſing of by the Managers, Joſeph Hollinſhead, Eſq; at Burlington, Moore Furman, Eſq; at Trenton, Hendrick Fiſher, Eſq; at Somerſet, and James Parker, at Woodbridge (who have given Bond, and are under Oath for the faithful Diſcharge of their Truſt) at Four Dollars each.

N. B. Any Perſon in New-York, or elſewhere, upon ſending a Letter, with the Money, to ſaid James Parker, ſhall have a Ticket or Tickets ſent them without Charge.

Memorial presented to the States General, in regard to the Felicite Frigate, by the Count d' Affry, Ambassador of France.

High and Mighty Lords,

"Your High Mightinesses have been informed of what passed on the 24th ult. with regard to the French Frigate the Felicite, which being pursued and attacked by three English Ships of War, was forced to shelter herself, by running on Shore off Gravesande.

"It was before the Eyes of a Multitude of the Inhabitants of this Country, whom Curiosity carried to Gravesande, that the Captain of the English Frigate the Richmond, behaved on this Occasion in an unheard of Manner. The Captain of the French Frigate being called to to strike, made Answer, that he would surrender on no Terms, as he counted upon the Safeguard of the Neutrality observed by your High Mightinesses in the present War. Regardless of this Declaration, and in Contempt of the most sacred Laws, the Captain of the Richmond took Possession of the Frigate, after cannonading her in such a Manner, that several of the Balls came up a great Way in the Downs. He hoisted English Colours on board the Felicite, took away every Thing that could be removed, destroyed the Masts and Rigging which his Cannon had spared; and finding he could no longer continue his Outrages with Impunity, determined to set Fire to the Frigate, which was done accordingly.

"Upon the Notice I sent to the King my Master of these Things, his Majesty commanded me to ask your High Mightinesses to procure him Restitution of the Felicite Frigate, with her Cargoe, and Indemnification for the Loss which his Majesty and the Owners have sustained by this unjust Violence of the English.

"His Majesty is not only persuaded, that your High Mightinesses, considering what you owe to yourselves, and to the Honour of the Republic, will require from the Court of London Reparation, not less authentic than just, for the Insult offered to your Sovereignty, and to your Neutrality, and for Violation of your Territory on this Occasion.

"But his Majesty further expects, from the Equity and Friendship of your High Mightinesses, that you will take efficacious Measures in England to procure him due Satisfaction. I must not omit informing your High Mightinesses, that the King my Master is extremely sensible, not only of the Orders given to prevent, if it were yet Time, the Insult offered them, and the Pillaging and setting Fire to the French Frigate; but also of the Behaviour of the Subjects of the Republic on that Occasion, and the Assistance his People received from them.

"The King my Master hath the more Ground to expect that the Republic will take the most serious Steps in this Affair, as they have great Reason to be pleased with that singular Protection which the Trade and Navigation of their Subjects enjoy in France. Your High Mightinesses have a fresh Proof of the King my Master's Favour towards you, in his ordering the Ship Eendragt, with her Cargoe, to be restored, with Damages and Costs.

Hague, Feb. 16, 1761. Comte d' Affry.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, March 10.

"There is great Reason to fear that the Negociations for a Peace will vanish into Smoke. England still persists in demanding the Cession of the greatest Part of North-America, and of Guadaloupe; but at present we are too well acquainted with the Amount of the Produce of this Island, to give it up.

"The Result of the Operations in Hesse will have much Influence on the Negociations. If M. Broglio should, as he flatters himself, regain the Ascendant, the English would soon alter their Tone. But if he should be worsted in the Battle which he hath Orders to fight, the Claims of that haughty Nation would rise as high as ever. The Court of Spain, indeed, seems sincerely disposed to interest itself in our Favour; but we have Mr. Wall's Influence to contend with, who will always side with that Power which placed him at the Head of Affairs, and who is not ignorant who they were that opposed his getting into high Place; besides, if the Catholic King be disposed to use his good Offices with England in our Favour, it is only upon Condition that we second his Views with regard to Italy; which the King cannot do.

"But amidst these Embarrassments, the last Dispatches from our Ambassador at Copenhagen, give us some Glimmerings of Hope. He writes, that with infinite Labour he hath almost prevailed on the King of Denmark to assist us with twelve Ships of the Line, ready to put to Sea as soon as our Court shall make him sure of a suitable Subsidy; provided, at the same time, that France will favour his Project for exchanging the Dutchy of Holstein, and his old Claims on Hamburgh; and that his Majesty hath 40,000 good Troops to support these Claims, and favour our Views. If this Affair should succeed, as our Ambassador gives Room to hope, we should be able to cut out some Work for the English by Sea, and even to attempt a Descent on their Coasts.

"Affairs are in a most distressful Crisis in every Quarter. Our last Accounts from Pondicherry leave us no Hopes of being able to keep that Place. On the other hand, the Advantages we hoped for, from arming 30 Ships of the Line in the Spring, are totally destroyed, by the Impossibility of procuring Sailors. Only the twelve Ships equipping at Toulon can be fitted for Sea this Season."

LONDON.

March 14. A Letter from Turin, by Way of Postscript, asserts, that his Sardinian Majesty had openly declared, that he would not suffer his Brother the King of Prussia to be crushed by so many different Powers.

Letters from Munich, dated Feb. 21, say, that two great Persons set off from that City the 18th, to execute a Commission of the greatest Importance at the Court of London.

March 17. It was strongly reported To-day on Change, that a Revolution has happened in Sweden.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated March 12.

"Letters from Francfort of the 8th, import, that at the Departure of the Courier, the Army of the Marshal Duke de Broglio, and that of the Allies, were very near each other; that the latter had made on the 17th a great Motion on their Left, with Design to cut off from the French all Communication with the Castle of Marbourg, to which it appeared that Prince Ferdinand had resolved to lay Siege; but that as the French Army began to be formidable, and that from the first Officer to the last Soldier, all expressed the best Will in the World, and great Desire to come to Blows with their Enemies, a Battle seemed inevitable."

March 19. The last Letters from the Allied Army mention, that Prince Ferdinand had caused several Bridges of Boats to be thrown over the Lahne, to maintain his Correspondence with the Corps de Reserve, which was besieging Cassel.

By the last Letters from Paris, it appears that the Court was in some Pain for the Fate of Cassel, where the French have a large Train of Artillery, and a very considerable Magazine of Forage, Provision and Ammunition.

March 21. They write from the French Camp at Oberissigheim, of the 4th Inst. as follows: "The Reports of Deserters place the Enemy near Fulda. We are breaking Ground in the old Field of Battle at Bergen, and have carried thither all the Cannon, great and small, which was at Francfort, in case the Enemy should advance, to take their Revenge. We hear that on Advice that the Enemy were passing the Ohme, the commanding Officer at Friedberg set Fire to our Magazines, which vexes the Marshal de Broglio not a little. If this Advice be confirmed, it was certainly a very precipitate Act. We had still 8000 Men, on the 24th, at Butzbach, which, it is generally imagined, the Troops coming from the Lower Rhine will be ordered to join; but of these we have heard nothing for three Days.---I can scarce believe that the Enemy will risk a general Engagement. A Defeat would embarrass them much, as we have 20,000 Men in different Places behind them. It is true, indeed, that by retiring by Fulda, they might avoid those Troops; and that, if we should be beat, we should run a Risk of losing those 20,000 Men, and of abandoning to the Enemy a Part of Franconia, in which they would raise many Recruits, and large Contributions."

They write from Hanover, that one of the King's Footmen had been detected in corresponding with the French; and that a Chaplain and Valet de Chambre to Prince Ferdinand were his Accomplices: To this Treachery some late Miscarriages are attributed.

There are other Letters from Germany, which speak of an Insurrection in Hungary, occasioned by some Austrian Officers taking Hungarians by Force to recruit their Troops. Several Detachments of Horse and Foot have, it is said, marched from Vienna to Buda on this Occasion.

From Poland a Report is sent, that some Russian Horse and Foot had been sent to Courland, to suppress a Rebellion in that Dutchy.

Letters from Ratisbon mention a Disturbance between the Austrian Soldiers, and Inhabitants of a certain District in Hungary, about raising Recruits for the Army; insomuch that three Battalions and three Squadrons were sent from the Neighbourhood of Vienna, in the Night between the 26th and 27th ult. and bent their March towards Buda. It was even said that much Blood had been already shed in this Affair.

March 24. The Court of France is labouring to get the Prince Bishop of Liege chosen Archbishop and Elector of Cologn.

Letters from Copenhagen inform us, that on the 22d of last Month the Prince Royal of Denmark supported an Examination, in three Languages, upon Religion, Metaphysicks, and History; and that the Ministers of State and learned Men present were astonished at his distinct and judicious Answers. This young Prince, the Heir apparent to the Crown of Denmark, is just turned of Twelve, and is the Son of the present King by his first Queen, Louisa of England.

BOSTON, June 1.

We hear that on the 21st of last Month, 7 Men, viz. Josiah Johnson, Sampson Hunt, Thomas, Silas and Luke Osgood, and ------ Moors, all of Ervingshire, and Henry Houlton, of New-Salem, being at the Falls above Deerfield, on the Fishing Design, got into a Canoe, in order to cross the River, but the Canoe overset just above the rapid Water: Two of the Men, viz. Johnson, and Thomas Osgood, reached a Rock, and saved themselves; the Violence of the Current took the others; Moors was lodg'd on a Rock down the first Bar, and taken off alive; Hunt and Silas Osgood were drowned; Houlton and Luke Osgood kept Hold of the Canoe, and were wonderfully preserved, being drove ashore a considerable Way down the River.

We likewise hear, that about a Month past a Woman, with a young Child in her Arms, left her House, in order to go to a Neighbour's; but lost her Path, and straggled none can tell where for 20 Days, when she came in, almost starved, to a House in No. 4, on Connecticut River, about five Miles from her own House, having subsisted on Roots, Leaves, &c. She buried her Child a few Days after she was lost. Her Husband, and many People of the neighbouring Towns, went in Search of her from Day to Day, but could not make any Discovery of her till she came in herself.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Bermuda, dated April 28, 1761.

"It is now, and has been for a Month past, very sickly in this Island, there being scarce People enough well to take Care of the Sick.--It is a violent inflammatory Disorder, never known in this Country before, and seizes upon all Ages, Constitutions and Complexions, and proves very mortal, especially to old People; and as many have died in one Fortnight, as at another Time in a whole Year.--------There are four stout Privateers from Old-France cruising in these Parts, and probably may pick up many Vessels from your Parts, bound to the West Indies: One of the Privateers is a Brig (as she appears to us) and has kept in Sight of this Island for a Fortnight past; and last Week chased Captain Bailey, in a Schooner, from Casco-Bay, with Lumber, as near the Shore as she could do, without running on the Rocks: Captain Bailey escaped being taken, by running his Vessel in among the Rocks, in a very hazardous Manner."

Thursday Morning last several Vessels arrived here in 22 Days from Quebec, by whom we learn, That the Garrison at that Place were in good Health, and had been so all Winter; having Plenty of Provisions and other Necessaries.

Captain Laws, in a Schooner from this Place, and two Vessels from Philadelphia, were safe arrived at Quebec. Several Vessels were met with in the River going up.

NEW-LONDON, May 29.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Andrew Thompson, late of this Town, to his Father here, dated London, March 9, 1761.

"Four Weeks after our Departure from New-York, in the Brigantine Audrey, Capt. Lawrence, we were taken by a French Privateer of 14 Guns. Our Captain and People were immediately carried on board the Privateer, leaving in our Brig a young Lad, who was a Passenger, and myself: They then put 12 Frenchmen on board us, and two English Seamen, Prisoners, to assist them to carry the Vessel to Bayonne, to which Place the Privateer belonged. After being in their Possession 14 Days (with the Assistance of these two, which made in all 4 of us) we fell upon them about 9 at Night, with an Axe, two Adzes and a Pistol: We soon gained the Possession of the Cabbin, leaving that of the Decks to them; they barred us down all Night; about 9 next Morning, we put a Brace of Balls through one of their principal Seamen, on which they immediately called for Quarters, which we granted; at the same Time ordered them all up in the Fore-top, and so bound them one after another as we allowed them to come down. After having them in Possession 10 Days, we, to our great Joy, arrived safe at Plymouth. In this Action we killed 3 of the Frenchmen, and wounded six. There were none of us hurt but myself, by being a little too forward in the Beginning of the Attack; however, I am in a Manner recovered, except a Cut over my left Eye with a Cutlass. We brought 9 Frenchmen into Plymouth, who are now all alive and well. When we were first taken, the Frenchmen stripped me of every Thing, even to my Shoe-buckles, so I have lost Chest, Money, Clothes, &c. as they were all carried on board the Privateer: However, I expect our Loss will soon be made up, having already had the Offer of a Lieutenancy, which I thought proper to refuse."

Besides the above, a Gentleman writes Mr. Thompson from New-York, That the Four were introduced to the Lords of the Admiralty, from whom they received Thanks, and a Gold Medal, for their Gallant Behaviour. Likewise, that the Under-writers had made them a Present of a Quarter Part of the Vessel and Cargoe.

NEW-YORK, June 4.

We hear from New-Jersey, that the Rev. Mr. James Finley is chosen President of the College at Prince-Town.

Yesterday was held the Commencement at King's College in this City; when five Gentlemen were admitted to the Degree of Bachelors of Arts, one whereof being necessarily absent, was honorary. Three were admitted Masters of Arts, who had before been admitted Bachelors here (one necessarily absent) besides which, six, who had been graduated at other Colleges, were also admitted Masters of Arts here. Those who were present performed to the great Satisfaction of the Audience.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.

Thursday last, being the Birth-day of our Most Gracious Sovereign GEORGE the Third, when he entered the 24th Year of his Age, was observed here by firing the Fort Guns, ringing of Bells, the Ships in the Harbour displaying their Colours, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

By several Letters from Lisbon, of the 29th and 30th of April, there is Advice, that the Packet Boats betwixt Dover and Calais, have a free Passage; by which it was imagined that a Treaty of Peace was on the Carpet, tho' all military Preparations, and intended Expeditions, were prosecuted with the utmost Vigour. Also that a French Man of War, of 60 Guns, and a Frigate of 36, had been cruising off the Rock of Lisbon, and had chased in there two English Frigates; and that Captain Kennedy had sailed (for Gibraltar, it was thought) for some of our Men of War to come and endeavour to take them.

We likewise hear from Lisbon, that some Vessels had arrived there, which parted with the Expedition Fleet off of Cape Finisterre, steering to the Southward.

The Captains Alison and Thurman, from this Port for Lisbon, were both taken, and ransomed for 1000 £. Sterling each.

We have Advice from Cadiz, that six Sail of Spanish Men of War of the Line, with about 4000 Land Forces on board, sailed from that Place two Months ago, said to be bound for the West-Indies: And that some French Privateers were cruising off of that Port, and had taken several English Vessels.

The Captains Bolitho, M'Dougall and Hunter, are arrived at Jamaica from this Harbour.

Captain Dodd from this Port for Providence, was lost off Abaco; but Part of the Cargoe saved.

Captain Henderson, from Providence, parted with Captain M'Pherson, in the New Britannia Privateer, for this Place, with his five Prizes, 16 Days ago, they having been all condemned there.

Yesterday came to Town Captain Nuttle, in seven Weeks from Liverpool. By him we have a Paper of April 10, and London Advices to the 7th of that Month, the Purport of which is as follows, viz.

That His Majesty, King GEORGE the Third, declared in Council, the Third of April, his Intention of marrying the Princess of Brunswick, Sister of the Hereditary Prince: That the Duke of York was appointed Admiral of the Blue, and was to bring over to England the designed Consort of the King: That the Expedition Fleet sailed the 30th of March, having 9000 Land Forces on board, consisting of 12 Ships of the Line, 7 Frigates, 3 Sloops, 2 Bombs, and 2 Fireships, said to be designed for the Island of Bourbon: That a second Fleet was fitting out, thought to be going on another Expedition: That on the 21st of March the Prince of Brunswick, in his Retreat from Hiembach, to join Prince Ferdinand, was attacked by the French, as he was entering a Defile, when the Enemy got an Advantage, and, according to their Account, the Allies lost 2000 Men, with 23 Standards and Colours, 14 Pieces of Cannon, and several Chests of Ammunition and Provision: That on the 25th the French attacked a Body of the Allies, and made Prisoners 2 Colonels, 1 Major, 6 Captains, and 9 other Officers, with 400 private Men, and took 2 Pieces of Cannon, and 3 Colours: That in the Night, between the 27th and 28th of March, the Allies raised the Siege of Cassel: That the King of Prussia had marched for Dresden; and Letters from Saxony mention his having invested that City on the 24th of March: And that Marshal Daun set out from Vienna the 21st of that Month to join the Army.

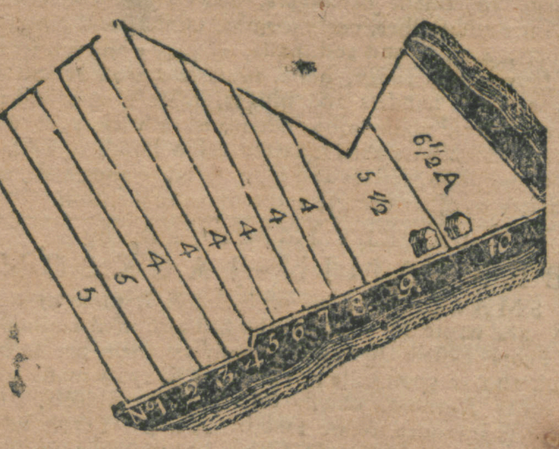
THE Method of disposing of LANDED ESTATES, by Way of LOTTERY, having been in Practice in most Countries, Time out of Mind; and as no Lotteries have been more common in America in particular, it is presumed the following Scheme, for disposing of Forty-six Acres of excellent Meadow-Ground, situate on the South-West End of Pettey's-Island, nearly opposite the City of Philadelphia, being the present Property of ALEXANDER ALEXANDER, will be equally acceptable to the Public with any Lottery yet set on Foot on the Continent. Much might, with the strictest Justice, be said in enumerating the Advantages that may accrue to the Adventurers in the Scheme here offered, not only with Respect to the prodigious yearly Increase in the Value of all Lands on the Continent, but more especially in such as lie so near so flourishing a City as that of Philadelphia; And it is well known, that no Tract can be more pleasant, or better situated for a Country Seat, than Pettey's-Island, from every Part of which there is a most delightsome Prospect up and down the River Delaware, of all outward and inward-bound Shipping, of the Jersey and Pennsylvania Shores, and a full View of the City of Philadelphia. It likewise abounds with all Kinds of wild Fowls, and pleasant Fisheries, nor can many Places on the Globe vie with it in Richness of Soil, each Acre of the Tract here mentioned having for a Series of Years produced upwards of three Tons of Hay in the Season, as also large Quantities of Indian Corn, and more might have been made by a very moderate Management. There is also belonging to the Lots undermentioned, such large Quantities of excellent Marsh without the Banks, which are now in Order, as are capable of maintaining Numbers of Milch Cows and other Cattle: Add to this, that the Lots are valued at no higher a Rate, in this Scheme, than Land on the same Island has been sold for at private Sale; and that at a Time when Land was not near so high in Value as at present.



The SCHEME.

Number of Prizes.		Dollars.
1	Prize consists of 6 Acres and an Half of excellent Meadow Ground, on which is a commodious Dwelling-house, containing three Rooms and two Fire-places, valued at - - - - -	680
1	Prize consists of 5 Acres and an Half, equally good, and with a Dwelling-house of the same Dimensions as the above, valued at - - - - -	600
6	Prizes consist of 4 Acres each, valued at 320 Dollars each Prize, are - - - - -	1920
2	Prizes consist of 5 Acres each, valued at 400 Dollars each Prize, are - - - - -	800
1635	Prizes, of 4 Dollars each, to be paid in Cash, are	6540
1645	Prizes.
3625	Blanks.
5270	Tickets, at Two Dollars each, are - - - -	10540

By this Scheme it appears, there are but little more than two Blanks to a Prize; which, considering the Number of large Prizes, and that the Whole is without any Deduction, evidently brings it on a Level with the best concerted Scheme yet offered to the Public. The Drawing to commence on the Sixth Day of August next, on the Premises, or sooner if sooner full; when Boats will be provided to bring over such as may chuse to be present at the Drawing. Tickets are now selling by Captain William Blair, Mr. William M'Ilvaine, Mr. James M'Grougar, Mr. William Sword, Mr. Glover Hunt, Mr. John Rouse, Mr. John Stilwaggon, Captain Robert Ferguson, Captain James Ross, Mr. Thomas England, and Mr. Francis Garrigues; who are appointed Managers, and are to be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of the Trust reposed in them: As also by William Dunlap, at the Post-Office.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

The following Advices we have by Captain Nuttle, from Liverpool, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Hague, March 27.

WE have juſt received an account from the army, that the corps under the command of the Hereditary Prince was attacked, the 21ſt inſtant, in their retreat from Heimbach, juſt as they were entering a defile near Grunberg, by three columns of French Cavalry, commanded by M. de Clozen; and, it is ſaid, that the French had ſo far the advantage in this attack, that they had repulſed ſome ſquadrons of Hanoverian cavalry, who came to the aſſiſtance of the foot, and taken ſeveral priſoners of the Brunſwick troops, with ſome colours and cannon: It is added, that General Rheden, who commanded the Hanoverians, was wounded and taken, tho' other accounts mention that officer as killed. The Hereditary Prince, with the remainder of that corps, retired to Hombourg, where the Allied army was encamped."

Paris, March 20. It is at preſent probable that all the troops which were at firſt deſtined for the Lower Rhine, particularly the houſhold troops, will not be employed in that quarter, if the apparent neceſſity of forming an army in Provence, ſhould prove indiſpenſable. On one hand, the warlike preparations of the King of Sardinia, ever ſince the death of the Catholic King, which leave no doubt that he will take advantage of the preſent troubles to aggrandiſe himſelf; and, on the other hand, the deſigns of Spain, which are kept ſo cloſe that we cannot learn what they really are, as the Miniſtry inſiſt on one thing to day, and to morrow on another; theſe conſiderations will doubtleſs determine the King to form a camp on that ſide.

Aleppo, Dec. 31. Mr. Jean Van Kerchem, Conſul of the United Provinces, has received a letter from M. Hulſt de Moſſelſtein (dated from Carek, in the Perſian Gulph, the 16th of October laſt) who, amongſt other things, relates, that the Count d'Eſtain, Brigadier of the armies of the King of France, had taken Bencoolen, and all the other Engliſh ſettlements in the iſland of Sumatra.

Stettin, March 15. The Duke of Bevern, our Governor, having ſome time ſince propoſed a ſuſpenſion of hoſtilities in Pomerania to Gen. Tottleben, that Ruſſian officer accepted thereof, and they have agreed upon a convention conſiſting of eight articles; in virtue of which no hoſtilities are to be committed on the confines of Brandeburgh, Sileſia, and Poland, till the 12th of May. Stolpe, Butow, Rumelſbourg, and New-Stettin, remain in the hands of the Ruſſians; and the Pruſſians occupy Schlawe, Crangen, Polnow, Bublitz, and Barwalde. The 8th and laſt article runs thus: "As the preſent convention has been made only upon the parole of honour of the Generals who command the troops in Pomerania, they engage, in caſe they ſhould receive from their reſpective Chiefs orders contrary hereto, not to recommence hoſtilities the one againſt the other, before having mutually given eight days notice."

Altena, March 27. Our laſt advices from Saxony import, that the King of Pruſſia had been ſince the 17th at Meiſſen, where that Monarch had proviſionally eſtabliſhed his head-quarters; that he was aſſembling a powerful train of heavy artillery; that nothing intereſting had yet happened between the Pruſſian and Auſtrian troops; but that the latter began to be in motion on the ſide of Groſſenhayne.

We learn from Mecklenbourg, that the Duke of that name continued at Lubec; and that as the greateſt part of his troops were retired to Domitz, a body of Pruſſians, whoſe force is not mentioned, received orders to go to attack that place, of which they had actually made themſelves maſters.

Nuremberg, March 17. On the 11th of this month Gen. Haddick diſpatched an expreſs for Stutgard, with a packet of diſpatches for the Duke of Wirtemberg. Since that time we are aſſured, that a corps of the troops of that Prince, compoſed of 21 choice ſquadrons, and 23 battallions (nine of them grenadiers) was put in march to join the army of execution, or at leaſt to favour its operations.

Ratiſbon, March 21. Several letters from Franconia adviſe, that a corps of Pruſſians, compoſed of nine battalions, and ſome cavalry, had, after divers ſkirmiſhes, driven from Thuringia ſome regiments of the army of the Empire, who were endeavouring to make in Heſſia a diverſion in favour of the French.

Hanover, March 20. Twenty thouſand Pruſſians are in march towards Hanau, to obſerve the right wing of the French army.

From the French head-quarters, March 23. The Allies are diſlodged from the poſts of Wetter, Groſs and Klein-Selheim; but the Marſhal has yet no particular detail from M. de Dieſbach of what has paſſed on his ſide.

The number of Priſoners made in the affair of the 21ſt ſurpaſſes 2000; amongſt them are two battalions of the Brunſwick guards.

Peterſburgh, March 3. Our Court continues to inſiſt upon the Dantzickers letting proviſions and ammunition be landed in their port, for the uſe of our army.

Hague, April 1. The pacific rumours that for ſome time prevailed here, ſeem to ſubſide apace.

Vienna, March 21. Yeſterday, after the arrival of ſeveral couriers from Saxony, a conference was immediately held at Court, at which it was reſolved that Marſhal Daun ſhould ſet out without delay to put himſelf at the head of the army. Accordingly he left this city at ſeven this morning; and all the Generals are alſo returned this day to their poſts. We had advice the day before yeſterday, that ſome preparations made by the King of Pruſſia indicated a deſign to get the ſtart of us in taking the field; and General Sincere was ordered to join the grand army with the eight regiments, which, having ſuffered much at the battle of Torgau, were ſent into Bohemia, for the ſake of good quarters.

Prague, March 20. Within the laſt 24 hours there has been the greateſt agitation throughout Bohemia. The troops are haſtening their marches, and the officers rejoining their regiments in the utmoſt hurry. The whole Pruſſian army is alſo in motion, ſo that we ſhall ſoon ſee whether the King will open the campaign with the ſiege of Dreſden, or whether he will invade Bohemia. It is reported that he hath 30,000 men more this year than the laſt; our armies are ſaid to be leſs numerous than they were the two laſt campaigns; but the Ruſſians are nearer than they were at that time.

Wurtzbourg, March 28. General Laudohn has opened the campaign in Sileſia very brilliantly. After having warmly diſputed with the Pruſſians the poſt of Franckenſtein near Reichenbach, he found himſelf under the ſad neceſſity of cutting in pieces at leaſt 500 of them, and then took poſſeſſion of it.

Nurenberg, March 24. Since the blow given to the corps under the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, Franconia is better ſecured on the ſide of Heſſia; but the Upper Mayn is more expoſed. The Pruſſians are advancing by the way of Thuringia and the Voigtland upon the army of the Empire; and this army having been repulſed near Schlaultz the 19th inſtant, the Auſtrian corps under General Guaſco has retreated to the Eger, and the troops of the Circles to Bamberg. The inhabitants of the laſt mentioned city are removing farther back into Franconia with their beſt effects. We hear that the Pruſſians already occupy Hoff and Bareith, and that their grand army in Saxony is marching up to Dreſden.

Head-quarters of the French army, March 28. On the 25th the Marſhal went to Ziegenhayn, and there paſſed the night. The ſame day M. de Monchenu, who, till M. Clozen's recovery, leads the troops he commanded, beat a body of the enemy juſt above Ziegenhayn, between Nieder-Grœntback and Frillendorff, took two General Officers, two Colonels, ſix Captains, one Major, nine other Officers, and 400 private men, with two pieces of cannon, and three colours. The enemy had about 200 wounded.

Hague, April 2. Yeſterday between five and ſix in the evening, Count d'Affry received a letter from M. Broglio, dated at Treyſa, March 29; in which the Marſhal acquaints his Excellency, that he had received a letter from Count Broglio his brother, dated at Caſſel the 28th, informing him, that in the evening of the 27th, he perceived ſome manifeſt ſigns of the ſpeedy departure of the troops which were beſieging Caſſel. That accordingly next morning at day-break they perceived their baggage and artillery filing off towards Hohenkirchen: That he immediately ſent M. de la Borde, with a battalion of foot, and ſome grenadiers, to the right bank of the Fulda, with orders to get as near as poſſible to Sunderhauſen, and endeavour to cannonade the troops that were retiring to the other ſide of the river.

On the 28th, in the morning, Count Broglio cauſed poſſeſſion to be taken by the grenadiers and hunters, of the third parallel, which the beſiegers had abandoned; but they continued to occupy the firſt parallel, even with a conſiderable force, 'till they had carried off their ſtores and implements employed in the ſiege.

The ſame morning Count Broglio ſent out the Marquis de Rochechouart with a body of grenadiers, hunters, and volunteers, with four battalions, and all the horſe that were in Caſſel, to follow the beſiegers in their retreat.

Duſſeldorp, March 31. In the night between the 27th and 28th, the Allies raiſed the ſiege of Caſſel. This revolution doth great honour to Marſhal Broglio. As he ſeemed to expoſe to certain deſtruction the numerous garriſons left in Gottingen, Caſſel, Ziegenhain, Marbourg, and Gieſſen, thoſe who were unacquainted, with the great reſources of that able General, began to deſpair of the whole campaign. At preſent, when the event hath diſcloſed his views, it is ſeen that thoſe garriſons kept the Allies in check, and ſerved to harraſs them; and that Prince Ferdinand's troops, after ſuffering incredible fatigue, are much diminiſhed at the concluſion of their expedition. M. Broglio, on his ſide, by keeping poſſeſſion of the keys of Hanover, will find all the paſſes into the electorate open to him, and the work of half a campaign finiſhed as ſoon as his troops are aſſembled.

Paris, March 27. We abſolutely loſe all hopes of ſeeing the pacific negotiations brought to maturity. Though peace is wanted every where, we are afraid that the party who are for war, will prevail over them that are really affected with the miſery of nations.

Maritime operations had been in ſome meaſure dropt; but, of late, we are aſſured, it has been again propoſed in council to endeavour to equip a fleet, which may be uſed as opportunity ſhall offer. At Havre de-Grace, and other ports, they are already labouring to re eſtabliſh our marine, which is not in ſo ruinous a condition as our enemies affect to give out.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Hague, April 3. We have no Letters from the Allied army ſince thoſe of the 20th paſt. In the mean time we have various reports concerning the late marches and operations of the French forces, ſome of which import, that Marſhal Broglio was at Ziegenhayn the 25th, having raiſed the ſiege of that place, and had ſome advantages over the Corps employed in beſieging it, upon their retreat.

The Allies had begun to withdraw their forces from before Caſſel on the 27th; and Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick had his head-quarters in the neighbourhood of Fritzlar the 29th.

By letters from Brunſwick we are informed, that the priſoners taken by M. Cloſen, in the affair of the 21ſt, were already releaſed.

Vienna, March 27. All the applications made to induce this court to conſent to a Peace have had no effect, and will always prove ineffectual, whilſt the Courts of London and Berlin refuſe to put the Empreſs Queen in Poſſeſſion of all Sileſia. So far are we from the thoughts of Peace, that every Thing hath been got ready, with the utmoſt diligence, for a vigorous Campaign, from which we have great expectations.

Hague, April 4. In the laſt aſſembly of the States of Holland and Weſt-Friſeland, a motion was made to augment the navy of the Republic with twelve additional ſhips of the line. This was oppoſed by ſeveral provinces; but the extraordinary proceedings of the Engliſh in India, and the deſign they have manifeſtly formed of cutting off the trade of the Dutch to Bengal, occaſioned a reſolution to be taken in form in the preſent Aſſembly, to fit out the twelve ſhips in queſtion with the utmoſt diligence, to be employed in cruiſing in the Mediterranean.

The Eaſt-India Company have preſented to the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes a voluminous memorial upon the late tranſactions in Aſia, and particularly at Bengal, between the ſubjects of the Republic and the Engliſh.

From the frontiers of Saxony, March 24. A detachment of the Prince of Pruſſia's regiment of cuiraſſiers has had the misfortune to be ſurpriſed and taken by two Auſtrian regiments: This happened near Neuſtadt.

Nurenberg, March 26. We have a report of another very ſharp rencounter within theſe few days in the neighbourhood of Triplitz, not far from Neuſtadt on the Orla, between a body of Pruſſian troops and a large detachment from the army of the Empire, which is ſaid to have terminated to the Advantage of the Pruſſians, who have ſince repoſſeſſed themſelves of Neuſtadt, and exacted enormous contributions from that town and its diſtrict. It is likewiſe given our, that one of their detachments has occupied Schlaitz in Voigtland; and that the King himſelf, with a good body of troops, came a few Days ago to take a view of Gera, and places adjacent.

Erfurth, in Thuringia, March 28. Our laſt advices from Saxony import, that the King of Pruſſia has ordered Meiſſen to be fortified as well as the nature of the ground will admit, and that upwards of four thouſand peaſants are daily employed in this work, which conſiſts of a very broad and deep intrenchment quite round the town. On the other hand, the Auſtrian commandant at Dreſden neglects no means to put that city in the beſt poſture of defence.

Hamburgh, March 31. As the King of Pruſſia is fortifying Meiſſen, it is ſuppoſed he intends to make it the general park of his Artillery, which will be more numerous in this than in any campaign during the war.

Eimbeck in the Principality of Grubenhagen, March 30. A ſtrong detachment of the garriſon of Gottingen, having again marched out the 26th to Nordheim, which was occupied by the Pruſſian corps under Col. Colignon, attacked it with ſo much vivacity, that, after a very obſtinate Diſpute, the Pruſſians were obliged to evacuate that poſt, and fall back to a ſmall body of Hanoverians, commanded by M. Eſtorff: However, this affair coſt the French many men; for as they were in want of cannon, they ſuffered much from the fire of ſeveral ſmall field pieces, before they could force their way into Nordheim.

Hamelen, March 31. This moment we received advice, that Gen. Count Kielmanſegg, with the body of troops under his command, having attacked a French corps of about 10,000 men, that had advanced with a deſign to carry off or deſtroy our magazines at Corbach, he had not only beat and drove them back as far as Medebach, and made ſome hundreds of them priſoners; but alſo, at the ſame time, the hereditary prince obliged another body of French troops to repaſs the Swalm, and that two Battalions of Hanoverian grenadiers chiefly diſtinguiſhed themſelves in this rencounter.

Duſſeldorp, April 3. The whole Allied army having paſſed the Dymel, and evacuated Heſſe, is now returned to Weſtphalia.

Hanover, April 3. Our army, which has repaſſed the Dymel, occupies again the frontiers of the Biſhoprick of Paderborn, where it will reſt itſelf, after the fatigue which it has ſuffered ſince the beginning of February. The French are alſo going into quarters of cantonment, in conſequence of a convention, which, it is ſaid, is to laſt till the middle of May. There are a great many ſick in both armies.

Paris, March 29. We continue to talk much of peace, the reports of which are even favoured by the laſt advices from London, Peterſbourg, and Stockholm; nevertheleſs military preparations are carried on with as great ardour as ever. The Prince de Soubiſe's departure for the Army on the Lower Rhine is fixed for the 15th of next month.

The Achilles of 64 guns, the Sage of 64, and the Bouffonne frigate of 30, ſailed from Breſt the 8th inſtant, on different deſtinations. The Sage is armed en flute for the account of the merchants of Dunkirk, and the other two on account of the Farmers General.

Paris, April 3. The court having received certain advices that the powerful fleet fitted out by the Engliſh, ſailed from Portſmouth the 28th of laſt Month, all the Officers, whoſe regiments are upon the ſea-coaſts, are ordered to join them forthwith.

Francfort, April 2. An Hanoverian Battalion which blocked up the caſtle of Arolſen, where the French had left 200 Men, has been attacked, and the greateſt part killed or made priſoners.

The day before yeſterday Count Broglio marched out of Caſſel with his garriſon, and attacked the rear guard of the Hanoverians, took from them four pieces of cannon, ſeveral waggons of ammunition, and made between 4 and 500 priſoners; but we have not yet received the detail of this affair. Marſhal Broglio lay that night at Caſſel. This day they were to ſing Te Deum for the deliverance of that place.

Head-quarters of Prince Ferdinand's army at Werkel, March 28. The army arrived on the 23d in the Neighbourhood of Neuſtadt, without having a ſingle muſket fired on its rear; and we have continued our march without being much annoyed.

The French garriſon of Ziegenhayn, joined by ſome cavalry, obliged the troops, which were lodged on the 25th at Lemsfield, to retire from that village with loſs. A battalion of the Britannick legion, poſted at Netze, hath been roughly handled there by 3000 of the enemy.

Hague, April 10. By the laſt letters from the army we underſtand, that every thing was quiet, and all the troops were going into cantonments.

We have an account from the Empire, that Major-General Schenkendorff, with a body of Pruſſians, had attacked, in the neighbourhood of Saalfeld, a detachment of the army of the circles, conſiſting of ſix battalions, and 800 horſe, had totally defeated them, having taken one Colonel, one Major, 27 other officers, 800 men, 6 cannon, and 4 ſtandards. All the reſt of the corps were cut to pieces, or diſperſed.

Leipſic, March 29. The Pruſſians are preparing to open the campaign with ſome coup d'eclat.

Orders are ſent to his Majeſty's ſeveral yards to fit out with all expedition a number of men of war for immediate ſervice, which it is ſaid are to be employed as a fleet of obſervation on the French coaſt.

Extract of a letter from on board one of his Majeſty's ſhips at Gibraltar, March 1, 1761.

"The Favourite ſloop is juſt come in from a cruize, and has brought in with her a brig privateer of 12 guns, and 82 men, belonging to Minorca, which has peſtered theſe ſeas for ſome time.

"The Firme has taken two prizes; the Anſon, Grammont, and Terror bomb, another; and the Quebec has brought in a privateer of 18 guns."

The laſt letters from Paris ſay, that the Governor of Martinico had preſſed the Court to ſend him without delay a few men of war, and 2 or 3000 good troops, with ſome ammunition, particularly powder, of which he ſtood in great need; with which ſuccour he engaged to defend the iſland againſt any force the Engliſh might bring againſt it.

They write from Breſlau in Sileſia, that the King had promiſed to ſend them ſeveral battalions and ſquadrons from Saxony, to reinforce the corps under General Goltze, and thereby enable him to make head againſt the Auſtrians, who began already to be in motion in the Upper Sileſia.

Yeſterday a large quantity of military ſtores, of different ſorts, were ſhipped at the Tower for the uſe of his Majeſty's forces in Germany.

By private letters from Vienna we have an account, that ſeveral rich Jews have engaged to furniſh her Hungarian Majeſty with a conſiderable ſum of money at ſix per Cent. Upon which orders were given to raiſe ten regiments of new recruits in Lower as well as Upper Auſtria, and in all the hereditary dominions contiguous thereto.

We are informed that his Majeſty was laſt night pleaſed to declare in Council, his intended marriage with the Princeſs of Brunſwick, ſiſter to the Hereditary Prince.

Beſides the expedition fleet, which put to ſea laſt Sunday from Portſmouth, two other ſecret expeditions are ſaid to be upon the carpet.

We are informed that the Change-Alley report of this week, in relation to a general peace, is without foundation; no ſufficient overtures having as yet been made to induce our Court to conſent to the holding of a congreſs.

The rumour of a peace between the Ruſſians and Pruſſians is ill grounded; the ceſſation of hoſtilities between them being nothing more than what is often done in winter, to prevent the troops being alarmed and harraſſed to no purpoſe.

April 7. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is to hoiſt his flag as Rear Admiral of the Blue, in order to eſcort to England the intended conſort of his Majeſty, the young Princeſs of Brunſwick, on whom Lord Holderneſſe and Lady Howe are alſo appointed to wait.

Letters from Saxony ſay, that the King of Pruſſia, with his whole army, arrived before Dreſden the 24th ult. and had inveſted that city.

The tranſports taken up laſt week are ordered to be fitted up with the utmoſt expedition, and to be ready to take ſome more troops on board for a ſecond expedition.

The opinion of the States of Sweden upon the manner of their entering into the preſent war is now publickly known. In the printed journal of the deliberations of the Diet we find the following article: "Upon the report which the ſecret Committee of the States has made upon the motives which engaged the Senators to adviſe the King to take part in the troubles of the war in Germany, without a previous convocation of the States on that ſubject; the Lords the States have judged, that the advice given and maintained by Meſſrs. the Senators Barons de Palmſtierna and de Scheffer, was of a nature irreconcileable with the confidence ever to be placed in the States. And this they have humbly repreſented to his Majeſty, in form of a remonſtrance, the 28th day of Feb. laſt, &c."

The diſmiſſion of the two Senators above-mentioned immediately followed this ſtep of the States.

April 9. We hear that ſix thouſand troops are to be employed in the expedition now fitting out.

It is ſaid that the land officers for the ſecond expedition were named yeſterday by his Majeſty.

Letters from Genoa of the 14th ſay, that the Genoeſe troops, which were ſent from Baſtia to oppoſe the Malecontents who had beſieged St. Pellegrino, after having attacked them with vigour, obliged them to raiſe the ſiege, and retire with precipitation. The Genoeſe killed 40 of their men, and wounded others. Among the killed was the kinſman of M. Paoli, chief General of the Corſicans.

Charles, the reigning Duke of Brunſwick-Wolfenbuttle Bevern, has two daughters unmarried:

Anna Amelia, born Oct. 24, 1739; and Louiſa Frederica, born Dec. 18, 1743, which is ſaid to be the Princeſs intended to be the conſort of our moſt gracious Sovereign.

Orders are ſent to Newcaſtle for the troops lately arrived there from Ireland to embark immediately for Germany.

By a letter from Portſmouth, dated the 7th inſt. we have advice, that orders were come down for fitting out a fleet as faſt as poſſible, to go on another expedition. The men work double hours, and by their great diligence, it is imagined that it will be ready to ſail in about three weeks. It is ſaid that this fleet will conſiſt of 20 ſail of the line, beſides frigates and fireſhips, and will be commanded by Sir Edward Hawke. The tranſports that are to go on this expedition have orders to be in the Downs as ſoon as poſſible.

They write from Madrid, that his Catholic Majeſty is going to ſend troops and ammunition to America, to put his poſſeſſions in that country in a better ſtate of defence.

April 11. On Wedneſday his royal highneſs the Duke of York was ſworn in at the board of Admiralty Rear-Admiral of the Blue.

We hear that two veteran regiments more, with a detachment of two hundred of Burgoyne's dragoons, are ordered forthwith to follow the expedition to the coaſt of France.

The tranſports that are now fitting out in the river for the ſecond expedition, are ordered, as ſoon as any of them can be compleated, to ſail immediately for the Downs, where the rendezvous of the fleet is to be; it is ſaid the land forces to be employed are to conſiſt of five regiments of foot, and a draught of grenadiers from the guards.

The departure of Marſhal Daun, to put himſelf at the head of the army, was very ſudden and unexpected. An expreſs arrived the evening before, with an account that his Pruſſian Majeſty was in full march for Dreſden, with a numerous army, in excellent order, and a complete train of 100 pieces of cannon.

The French boaſt that Marſhal Broglio hath ſtill poſſeſſion of the keys of Hanover. But, to make uſe of thoſe keys, he muſt walk over the bodies of the Allied army.

Extract of a letter from Paris, March 31.

"The negotiations for a peace are laid aſide for the preſent; and the court is wholly employed about the means of carrying on the war with all poſſible vigour. We promiſed ourſelves a great deal from the good offices of Spain: We are even ſurpriſed that the court of Madrid, to which ours ſhews the higheſt regard, ſhould ſo much favour the Engliſh. If it leaned as much to us, it would not heſitate an inſtant to declare in our favour. But it ſeems to have a diſtruſt of us, and to be afraid of our political ſyſtem with regard to the affairs of Italy, notwithſtanding the repeated promiſes of our Miniſtry, that they would abide by the regulations of the late Catholick King.

"Mean while, we are at bottom ſincerely deſirous of a peace with England and Pruſſia. The deficiencies in the finances, and the large ſubſidies we are obliged to pay, give riſe to very ſerious reflections. The King, who loves peace and quiet, hath declared in full council, that if this campaign ſhould not put an end to this ruinous war, all the fine promiſes of the Court of Vienna muſt be relinquiſhed. This declaration was, in a great meaſure, occaſioned by the negotiations between that Court and Spain, and the ſolicitations of the Court of Peterſburgh, which teizes us terribly. They inſiſt on being paid half a million of livres before their troops begin to march; and after all, we have no aſſurance that they will act with more effect than they did laſt campaign."

His Majeſty's ſloop of war Albany, Capt. Brograve, is returned to Portſmouth, and has brought up with her the Tourterelle, a French frigate of 16 guns, and 130 men, which ſhe took off Guernſey.

Col. Burgoyne's regiment of light horſe is gone to Portſmouth, in order to embark on the expedition.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, April 9.

"Monday morning early Col. Deſagulier of the train arrived here; and on Wedneſday ſet out in a bomb-ketch for Quiberon-Bay, where our expedition fleet, we hear, is aſſembled.

"Battering cannon, faſcines, gabions, &c. are to follow the Colonel from hence the firſt ſpurt of wind.

"We juſt now hear that our forces are landed on Belleiſle, but this merits confirmation.

"We expect in here to-day a company of miners, who are to proceed with the battering cannon immediately to Quiberon-Bay to join our fleet.

"At Spithead Admiral Geary, with 15 ſail of men of war."

After demurring about the matter theſe three years paſt, we are at laſt agreeably informed, that a reſolution is taken to ſend a Britiſh Fleet into the Baltic.

A number of letters by yeſterday's mail, particularly ſome from Aleppo, of the 8th of February, ſay, that Pondicherry was taken by the Engliſh.

They write from Germany, that on the 26th paſt the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, purſued by M. de Poyanne, was in danger of falling into the hands of the Naſſau huſſars; but M. de Janneret, Lieutenant-Colonel of Malachowſky's huſſars, and an Aid-de-Camp to his Serene Highneſs, by expoſing their own perſons, and loſing their liberty, ſaved him.

Prince Ferdinand's army, ſuppoſing the regiments to be all complete, as they were provided for by parliament, would amount to 88,590 effective men, viz. 39,773 of the troops of Hanover, Brunſwick, Saxe-Gotha, and the Count of Lippe Buckebourg; 22,404 Heſſians; 3000 of the Britannick Legion; 3413 of a ſeparate body of troops of Brunſwick; and 20,000 Engliſh infantry, cavalry and dragoons.

We are informed, that, at the requeſt of our Enemies, propoſitions, in relation to a general peace, have been lately ſent from hence to the different powers at war; and that if theſe propoſitions are agreed to, a congreſs will be held immediately.

April 13. The Auſtrian army, which is to act in Sileſia under General Laudohn, is to conſiſt of upwards of 40,000 men, and it is imagined will ſoon be joined by 30,000 Ruſſians.

"The French are to cede all North-America to the Engliſh, who are to reſtore Guadaloupe, Senegal and Goree, and give 500,000*l.* in conſideration of the ſhips taken by them before war was proclaimed.

"The King of Pruſſia is to cede all Sileſia to the Queen of Hungary, who in return is to ſeculariſe ſeveral conſiderable Biſhopricks, and give them to the King of Pruſſia, which, it is imagined, will be a ſufficient equivalent for Sileſia, as they lie ſo contiguous to his other dominions."

Some letters from Amſterdam mention, that by certain accounts received from Sumatra, the French had really made an attempt upon the Engliſh ſettlement of Bencoolen, but had been repulſed with conſiderable loſs.

The Samuel and John, Tiddy, from Virginia to London, is taken and carried into Bayonne.

His Royal Highneſs Prince William Henry will ſhortly be created Duke of Glouceſter.

The Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD is ſo well recovered from his late illneſs, that he appeared abroad on Saturday laſt.

The news of a Congreſs and peace being ſo much propagated here, hath given the hint to our neighbours the Dutch and French, that they have returned us our news back, and have raiſed the price of Engliſh ſtocks, in Holland, above 4 per cent.

Extract of a letter from Naples, March 17.

"A large Engliſh fleet is hourly expected in the Mediterranean. The Conſul we have at Leghorn has juſt ſent ſuch advice to our Regency. It is ſaid the Engliſh are coming either to bombard Toulon, or reconquer the iſland of Minorca."

The Corſicans, according to ſome letters from Leghorn, having renewed the ſiege of the caſtle of San Pellegrino, carried it by aſſault, and made the Genoeſe garriſon priſoners of war; and it was alſo ſaid that they had found there a quantity of artillery, and ammunition, and proviſions for ſix months; and afterwards proceeded to the attack of the tower of Golo.

By a leter from Portſmouth, dated the 12th inſtant, we have advice, that they have received an account there, that the troops which went out on the expedition have made good their landing on the iſland of Belleiſle, and only wait for ſome large pieces of cannon to reduce the whole iſland to his Majeſty's obedience; alſo, that the troops are embarked for the ſecond expedition, and will ſail the firſt fair wind.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, April 7.

"The ſucceſſive arrival of three couriers laſt Thurſday, Friday, and Saturday, one to the Duke of Wolfenbuttle, another to M. Van Hellen, the Pruſſian envoy, and the third to the Engliſh miniſter, gave riſe to a report that a ceſſation of arms was concluded between the grand Ruſſian army, and the King of Pruſſia. Next day it was rumoured, that thoſe three couriers, who are all gone over to England, carried the news of a quadruple alliance between Ruſſia, Sweden, Pruſſia and England. This immediately gained ſuch credit, that being carried to Amſterdam, the ſtocks roſe upon it. The real contents of their diſpatches we know not, only that they were of more than ordinary importance. People of the beſt ſenſe ſay, that a general peace is in agitation, to which the Czarina is at preſent much diſpoſed."

The hereditary Prince of Anhalt-Bernbourg, has entered into the ſervice of Denmark, in quality of Major-General.

The Auſtrian General's march on the ſide of Hungary, ſeems to confirm a ſuſpicion which has been long entertained, of the Turks being inclined to take advantage of the ſituation of things in Germany; and it likewiſe accounts for the Ruſſians ſo ſuddenly changing their ſyſtem, and agreeing to a ceſſation of arms.

The ports of Dover and Calais are ſaid to be opened for meſſengers to paſs between the two Courts.

It is ſaid that 3000 troops are coming from Ireland, to go on the 2d expedition; and that orders are iſſued out to raiſe forthwith 3000 men.

His Majeſty's ſloop the Albany, of 16 carriage guns, and 125 men, commanded by Captain Brograve, is arrived at Spithead, with a French frigate, called the Pheaſant, commanded by M. la Coudraye, which the Albany fell in with on the 6th inſt. at day-light, off Plymouth, and chaſed till the 7th at ten in the morning, when Capt. Brograve gave ting along-side of her, and firing a broadside, she hoisted French colours, and then struck. She was at first of equal force with the Albany, carrying 16 carriage guns, and 125 men; but, during the chace, she had thrown 14 of her guns overboard. She had been three days from Havre de Grace, and had not taken any thing.

That a Congress was agreed upon, and that it was to be held at Ausburgh [a large and elegant City in Germany.]---The French perceive, and are afraid of the Cloud that is gathering in Italy; and the Russians and Swedes seem to be heartily tired of the War; the Spaniards are arming; the Sardinians are not idle.---Mr. PITT still continues triumphant, and doubtless will see that we have an honourable and lasting Peace.---Our new Parliament will soon meet.------

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Abſtract of an ACT of PARLIAMENT, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late MAJESTY, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

THE Act recites a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 11th and 12th of Auguſt 1699, from William Penn to Tobias Collet, Michael Ruſſell, Daniel Quare, and Henry Gouldney, of ſeveral Lots in Philadelphia; and a Tract of Land in the County of Bucks in Pennſylvania, granted to Richard Noble; and of One Hundred Acres of Land in the ſaid County, and all Buildings and Improvements thereon; and of Sixty Thouſand Acres of Land in Pennſylvania; and Five Thouſand Acres thereof in the Manour of Highlands, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Gilberts, in the County of Philadelphia, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Rocklands (Seven Hundred Acres whereof were to be ſet out upon the River Delaware, and the reſt to be one Lot out of every Townſhip) and the Remainder of the ſaid Sixty Thouſand Acres to be ſet out of ſuch other Parts as the ſaid Grantees, their Heirs or Aſſigns ſhould deſire (except ſuch as were already taken up) and alſo of all Lots, Mines, Minerals, Royalties, Commons and Appurtenances (royal Mines only excepted) with a proportionable Part of all Liberty Lots laid out, but not taken up, at and under the yearly Rent of two Beaver Skins.

And alſo, that by Indenture, dated the ſame 12th of Auguſt, between the ſaid Grantees of the one Part, and William Beach and others, of the other Part, the ſaid Grantees agreed to ſtand ſeized upon Truſt, to execute ſuch Deeds as ſhould be approved of by the Grand Committee of the Proprietors; and that the ſaid Grand Committee, or Grantees, by their Order, might depute any Perſon in the ſaid Province to contract for and execute Conveyances of the Premiſes, and that the nett Profits of the Premiſes ſhould be divided into Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, and be managed by a Grand Committee, to be annually choſen, as therein mentioned; and that the Proprietors ſhould be called, The Proprietors of the Pennſylvania Land Company in London; with Directions how the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares ſhould be transferred or deſcend, in caſe of Death.

And alſo, that in the Year 1720, the Proprietors of the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, diſpoſed thereof to a new Sett of Proprietors, who divided the ſame into Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, and Receipts for many of them were ſigned and given out by Thomas Story the then Treaſurer.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 23d and 24th of December 1720, from the ſaid Thomas Story to John Haddon and Benjamin Kirton, of a Tract of Land between the two navigable Creeks in the County of Kent, in Pennſylvania, containing Eleven Thouſand Acres; another Tract, lying at Pequa Creek, in the County of Cheſter, in Pennſylvania, containing One Thouſand Nine Hundred and Forty Acres; another Tract in Goſhen, in the ſame County, containing Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres; another Tract on Schuylkill, in the ſaid County of Philadelphia, containing Three Hundred and Thirty-four Acres; one Oil, and one Corn or Griſt Mill, and the Land thereto belonging, containing Six Acres; another Tract of Land in the ſaid County of Bucks, containing One Hundred and Seveny-Acres; one Bank Lot and Wharff, containing One Hunt dred and Twelve Feet, in the ſettled Part of the City, with a ſmall Tenement thereon, and Three Hundred Acres of rich Swamp Land near Philadelphia (whereof about Seventy Acres were imbanked and incloſed) and Seven Thouſand Two Hundred Acres of Land in Pennſylvania, not then taken up; in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 26th and 27th of September 1723, from Peter Sonmans to the ſaid Haddon, Samuel Bonham, Samuel Turner, and John Midford, of Two Ninetieth Parts of Ninety equal Hundredth Parts of a Tract of Land on the Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, called Arent Sonman's Manour, in the County of Burlington, containing Twenty Thouſand Acres, with the Allowance for Roads; and all other Tracts belonging to the ſaid Proprietaries in Weſt New-Jerſey, not then taken up; and all Mines, Minerals, Royalties, and Appurtenances thereto belonging (except and reſerved to the ſaid Sonmans, his Heirs and Aſſigns, one full Moiety of the ſaid two equal Ninetieth Parts, to be taken out and diſtinguiſhed from the remaining Part) in one entire Tract, in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo, the ſeveral Indentures, Conveyances and Deaths, whereby ſuch Parts of the Premiſes, as remain unſold, are become veſted in Thomas Hyam, Thomas Reynolds, and Thomas How, in Fee, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo that it appears, that about Nineteen Thouſand One Hundred and Ninety-four Acres of the Premiſes have been ſold, and that about Seventy-two Thouſand Three Hundred and Thirty now remain unſold, beſides ſome Houſes, Mills and Tenements.

And alſo that Three Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty-one of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares have been transferred to John Bell, who, by his Deed-poll, dated the 12th of November 1753, acknowledged the ſame to be in Truſt for the ſaid Company; and, by Deed-poll dated the 21ſt of September 1759, aſſigned the ſame to the ſaid Hyam, Reynolds, and How, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And that, in Purſuance of Advertiſements, Claims have been made, under ſeveral Receipts, for Six Hundred and Fifty Shares, and Twenty-ſix Shares; and the Names of the Perſons who produced ſuch Receipts, or claimed ſuch Shares, are mentioned in the ſecond Schedule.

And alſo, that it is unknown who are entitled to the Remainder of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares; and that ſeveral of the Perſons, named in the ſaid Schedules, are dead; and ſome of the ſaid Shares have been aſſigned; and that the Premiſes unſold are greatly increaſed in Value; and, if ſold, would raiſe a conſiderable Sum to be divided amongſt the Perſons intereſted, and the parcelling out thereof may tend to populate the ſaid Colonies.

And alſo, that Contracts have been made with Francis Rawle, the ſaid Company's Agent in Pennſylvania, for Sale of ſome of the Premiſes; and that it will be for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted, that what remains ſhould with all convenient Speed be ſold; but Perſons decline treating, unleſs all the Perſons intereſted join in the Sale, or unleſs the ſaid Lands, by Authority of Parliament, be veſted in Truſtees to be ſold.

Therefore, it is ENACTED, that all the Premiſes (except what have been ſold and conveyed by the Truſtees) be veſted in John Fothergill, Doctor in Phyſic, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How, Devereux Bowley, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Silvanus Grove, and William Heron, their Heirs and Aſſigns, diſcharged of the Uſes, Truſts and Powers, the ſame are now ſubject to by the ſaid Indentures, and of all Right of the Perſons intereſted in the Partnerſhip on Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, but upon Truſt; with all convenient Speed to cauſe an Office-Copy of this Act to be inrolled in the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls in Philadelphia, and a full Abſtract thereof, inſerted ſeven Times at leaſt in the Philadelphia Gazette, with Notice that the Premiſes (not contracted for with the ſaid Rawle) are to be ſold by public Auction, at ſuch Times and Places in Philadelphia, as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Gazettes (not leſs than ſix Months from the firſt publiſhing ſuch Notice) in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer moſt; and ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other daily Papers in England, Advertiſements that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, in Parcels, to the beſt Bidder, with other Particulars as ſhall be requiſite; and on Receipt in England of the Pennſylvania Gazette (in which ſuch Abſtract and Advertiſements ſhall be inſerted, or one of them, with an Affidavit made before ſome Judge or Magiſtrate at Philadelphia, of the ſame being the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia) to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other News Papers in England, that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, at the Times and Place mentioned in the Pennſylvania Gazette.

And the Premiſes ſhall be put up to be ſold accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time, till ſold.

And, upon Truſt, to convey all Parcels, by the ſaid Rawle agreed to be ſold, to the Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money, and on Payment of the Money agreed for any Part, by the Act, veſted in the Truſtees, ſuch Premiſes ſhall, at the Coſt of the Purchaſers, be conveyed to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns.

The Truſtees ſhall take Care, that ſufficient Security be given by every ſuch Perſon, for his due Behaviour, and remitting to England, with all convenient Speed, all Money received under ſuch Deputation; and no Perſon ſhall be capable to act under it, until he ſhall have given ſuch Security, and an Inrollment thereof be made in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls.

The Receipt of the Truſtees, or of any Perſon deputed as aforeſaid, for any Purchaſe Money, in reſpect of Premiſes agreed to be ſold by the ſaid Rawle, or which ſhall be ſold under this Act, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge, and the Purchaſers ſhall not be anſwerable for any Loſs, Miſapplication, or Nonapplication of the Purchaſe Money.

The Truſtees, after Receipt of any Money, ſhall with all convenient Speed pay the ſame into the Bank of England, or place it out in the public Funds at Intereſt, and apply the Dividends as the principal Money is directed to be applied.

None of the Truſtees, or their Deputies, nor any Perſon in Truſt for any of them, ſhall purchaſe under this Act; and every ſuch Purchaſe (if any) ſhall be void.

[For the Remainder, ſee the Fourth Page.]

As by the laſt Advices from England, there is Reaſon to believe the Troops that went out on the Expedition, had made good their Landing on Belleiſle, we flatter ourſelves the following Account will be agreeable to our Readers, viz.

HEADS of a Scheme, planned by an Officer in the laſt War, for ſeizing the Iſland of Belleiſle, on the Coaſt of France.

THE French have not above 800 or 1000 regular Troops in the Iſland, and the Inhabitants fit to bear Arms cannot amount to above 5 or 600; ſix Regiments therefore, if well commanded, might drive all before them.

An Attack on Belleiſle would put the French into as great an Alarm, as if we were to attack any Part of their main Land with 20 or 30 Battalions, and draw as many of their Troops that Way; becauſe Belleiſle lies ſo near the Middle of ſo many great trading Ports between Breſt and Bourdeaux, which is above 300 Miles Coaſt-ways, and as near the main Land as the Iſle of Wight is to Portſmouth; and as the French will not know how many Troops we have at Belleiſle, every Part of that Coaſt will be in as great a Conſternation as all our Weſtern Coaſt would be, if there was a Body of French Troops in the Iſle of Wight, and they Maſters of the Sea, as we are.

As there is a good Road between Belleiſle and the main Land of France, our Ships might lie there as well as at Spithead, and be in the Way to hinder the Junction of the Breſt and Rochefort Fleets, and to intercept their going out or coming home to and from thoſe Ports; as alſo trading Ships from Port Louis, Nants, Rochelle, Bayonne, and Bourdeaux; and we might erect Arſenals and Magazines on the Iſle of Belleiſle, and ſupply our Ships of War with every Thing they wanted all the Year round, without coming home every Cruize.

As the Produce of the Iſland can maintain many Troops, we might conveniently lodge Troops there, to be ready for further Attempts, and keep the French eternally alarmed, and finally ruin their Trade.

P. S. As Breſt is a Port that has no inland Navigation, nor any Materials for building, repairing, or fitting out Ships, but what are brought by Sea from Bayonne, Bourdeaux, Nants, Rochelle, Port Louis, &c. (and which are carried thither in Time of War with great Safety, between thoſe Iſlands and the Main, in Spite of our Ships of War, who know nothing of that Navigation) the taking of Belleiſle would put a final End to that Commerce; ſo that the French would not be able to fit out a ſingle Ship from Breſt, after the preſent Stores they may have there are exhauſted; neither would they be able to fit out from Rochefort, without the greateſt Difficulty: And as Belleiſle lies directly over againſt Port Louis and Port L'Orient, none of their Eaſt-India Ships could ever get in or out of that Port.

I have been told, the Coaſt of this Iſland has been viſited by ſome Commanders of our Ships of War, and that they have reported that it was ſo rocky on every Side, that it was impoſſible to land Troops; the Contrary of which I have had a clear Demonſtration of. For I myſelf was at the making of ſeveral Landings upon it, at different Parts, out of Men of Wars Boats in the Year 1708, with ſeveral Bodies of Troops, and we plundered it of all the Cattle found in the open Country. I alſo went there in a French Eaſt-India Ship from L'Orient, in the Year 1740, ſtaid eight Days, and ſaw ſeveral very proper Places for landing of Troops.

LONDON.

April 2. It was Yeſterday reported, that Overtures for a general Peace have been made from the Empreſs of Ruſſia; and that a Congreſs was expected to be held for that Purpoſe.

April 4. The Letters from Francfort ſay, that the Poſition which General Haddick has taken near Milhauſen, will cut off all Communication between the Allies and the Pruſſians. The Hanoverian Light Troops that were at Fulda (according to the ſame Letters) are retired towards Hirſchfeld, and carried off with them the Cannon belonging to the Town, and all the Arms of the Burghers.

April 9. Beſides the French and Swiſs Guards that are on their March to the Lower Rhine, four Companies of the French King's Body Guards are to paſs thro' Bruſſels between the 18th and 24th of this Month, the Horſe Grenadiers the 26th, the Gendarmes the 29th, the Light Horſe the 30th, the firſt Company of Mouſquetaires the 2d of May, and the ſecond on the 4th of the ſame Month.

A Body of Cannoneers ſet out laſt Monday Se'nnight from Bruſſels for Bohemia.

When the laſt Letters came from Conſtantinople, the ſecond of the Grand Signior's Favourites was hourly expected to be brought to Bed; and immenſe Preparations were making for public Rejoicings in caſe the Sultana ſhould be delivered of a Prince.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, April 8.

"Yeſterday arrived at Spithead his Majeſty's Ship the Rippon, Captain Jekyl; which Ship, in her Paſſage to the Eaſt-Indies, met with and engaged a French Man of War, and thereby received Damages, which obliged her to put back into Port again to refit, before ſhe can proceed on her Voyage."

April 11. On Wedneſday near 15000 lb. Weight of Gunpowder was ſhipped for Maryland and Virginia.

The Marſhal Duke de Broglio has triumphed rather over his Enemies at the Court of Verſailles than over the Allies, whoſe Deſigns have been fruſtrated chiefly by the bad Weather, bad Roads, and being badly ſupplied. The principal Advantage the Marſhal has gained, is the preſerving ſo many different Corps of Troops as he had thrown into all the tenable Poſts; for after all, his Magazines are ſo thoroughly ruined, that it is thought impoſſible for them to ſubſiſt long in Heſſe, more eſpecially as the Army of the Allies may be ſoon in a much better Condition than during the whole laſt Campaign.

According to private Letters from Warſaw, the Miniſters find themſelves much embarraſſed in their Tranſactions with the Court of Peterſburgh, where the revolted Courlanders find a Kind of Protection, and the Deſign of making Dantzick a Place of Arms is far from being laid aſide. The Mortification received in Regard to theſe, and ſome other Points of Importance, induced Count Poniatowſki to inſiſt upon being recalled from Peterſburgh.

At Naples, where they ſpeak of Affairs more freely than uſual; where they like the French as little, and fear them much leſs, than they ever did; they make no difficulty of ſaying, that the Auſtrian Miniſters at Verſailles have bid fair for compaſſing gradually the Ruin of that Nation; that, relying upon the Arts of an inſidious Policy, they have obliged the Spaniſh Branch of the Houſe of Bourbon to make a Separation of Intereſts, in ſuch a Manner, that it is ſcarce poſſible they ſhould be again united.

Even the moſt penetrating People at Hamburgh begin to give over gueſſing the Meaning of the Letters they receive from Stockholm, where it ſhould ſeem that either Things are ſo confuſed, that no tolerable Judgment can be formed of what will happen; or the Dread of being involved in ſome new Plot makes People write ſo darkly, as to render their Accounts unintelligible.

Extract of a Letter from Franckfort, on the Oder, March 30.

"We have been ſo often amuſed with Rumours of Peace that we are now cautious how we give Credit even to the ſtrongeſt Appearances of it. The Convention, which you no Doubt have heard of, is religiouſly obſerved, and both Ruſſians and Pruſſians live in perfect Amity, and ſeem to forget that they were ſo lately cutting each others Throats; but whatever the Soldiers may do, the poor Inhabitants of Pomerania will long remember the Ruſſian Viſit: Families, who from eaſy Circumſtances are reduced to Beggary, Fathers and Huſbands butchered by the inhuman Coſſacks, Virgins ſacrificed to their brutal Luſt, Houſes plundered, and the little Money found in them carried away, and their valuable Moveables ſold to the beſt Bidder; Corn trodden under Foot, or cut when green as Provender for their Horſes, are ſome of the Calamities which that unhappy Country groans under, and which a Peace of twenty Years will hardly remove; the Misfortunes of a few have indeed been all viated by charitable Contributions from abroad, particularly from England; that generous and humane People, though hardly ſenſible of the Horrors of War as to themſelves, have a tender Feeling for the Miſeries of their Fellow-creatures; a Remittance from thence, of between 4 and 500 l. Sterling, having lately paſſed through Hamburgh for that Purpoſe. Could Princes ſee this horrid Picture with their own Eyes, there is no Doubt, but remembering the Divine Precept, of loving their Neighbour as themſelves, they would quickly be induced to ſheathe the Sword."

His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty having been obliged to ſuſpend for three Years the Salaries of the Parliament, and other Courts of Juſtice, ſuperior and inferior, has inſiſted upon the Payment of the Capitations, or Poll-Tax, during thoſe Years notwithſtanding, without any Regard to the Remonſtrances of the Parliament. By an Arret of his Council he has ordered thoſe three Years Capitations to be ſtopped out of one Year's Salary now to be paid; the Parliament have cancelled that Arret, and thus there is a new Rupture between the Court and that reſpectable Body.

The States of Holland have granted Mr. Liniere a Patent, for 25 Years, for a Machine, invented by himſelf, for clearing Mud, Sand, &c. out of all Channels, Rivers, and Harbours; and likewiſe a Pump, the Sucker to be made without Leather, which will be of great Utility to diſcharge a greater Quantity of Water than has been done by any Pump, and the Charge of keeping it in Repair will be trifling, and can be worked by Arms, Hands, or Body, and as many People may be employed in working them as they think fit. A Proof has been made of the Performance, and a Model of it hath been laid before the States.

His Majeſty's Ship Æolus, Capt. "Whilſt M. de Poyanne was in Purſuit of the Hereditary Prince, Marſhal Broglio put himſelf at the Head of 20 Squadrons of Dragoons, and purſued Luckner's Corps as far as Fritzlar; but he made his Retreat in excellent Order, ſo that there was no breaking in upon his Rear Guard: His Manœuvres have been highly applauded by the Marſhal. On the 16th the Royal Legion alſo took 300 Engliſh at Alſfeldt, who had been left there ſick, and were almoſt recovered. The ſame Day Fiſcher's Troops went to Corbach, to endeavour to cut off Subſiſtence from the Allied Army. "When a Congreſs was propoſed ſome Days ago, Mr. Pitt declared he would not enter on the Subject, till the French firſt agreed to give up all Pretenſions to Canada and the Fiſhery: And by the Mail To-day, I am informed, they have agreed to the former, but ſtruggle to keep the latter.

NEWPORT, RHODE-ISLAND, June 16.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Samuel Sweet, Commander of the Privateer Brigantine Diana, of this Port, dated Monti-Chriſto, May 13, 1761, to his Owner.

"This I hope will be conveyed to you by the Sloop Succeſs, a French Dutchman, which I took the 10th Inſt. off Iſabella Bay, and doubt not of her being condemned as a lawful Prize. The Circumſtances attending this Capture are as follow.

"Being off Iſabella Bay the 9th, at 6 o'Clock A. M. we ſaw 2 Sail bearing S. W. diſtant about 4 or 5 Leagues. We immediately gave Chace, and at Eleven came up with one of them: Upon our hailing her, they hoiſted Dutch Colours, and anſwered, that they came from Cape Francois, and were bound to Coracoa; upon which I ordered him to hoiſt out his Boat, and come on board my Brig: He replied, he would not hoiſt out his Boat: Then I told him, I would fire into him; his Anſwer was, Fire and be damn'd, I'll return as good as you ſend. We fired at her, which they returned, by giving us a Broadſide. We continued engaging for an Hour: By this Time we were ſo much diſabled, as to be obliged to ſheer off to refit, and take Care of our wounded Men: The Sloop we were engaged with, was glad to do the ſame. During which Time, the other Sloop bore down upon us with a Stinkpot fixed, and Bowſprit manned, ready for boarding us, and fired 6 or 7 Shot at us. At 6 o'Clock P. M. we made Sail; when the Sloop we had engaged, perceiving his Conſort had begun to attack us, hoiſted his Square-ſail, and bore away: The other Sloop ſeeing this, endeavoured alſo to get off. We continued Chace; at 7 fired a Bow Chace, and at 8 another. About 10 o'Clock A. M. came up along Side, and called upon her to ſtrike: Upon which they anſwered they would, provided we would give them good Quarters: Upon our promiſing which they ſtruck; ſhe proved to be a Sloop fitted with ſix four Pounders, and 14 Swivels, and had on board 48 Men, was loaded with Sugar and Coffee, &c. at the Cape, and bound to Coracoa, in Company with the other Sloop, fitted with 10 Six Pounders, and 14 Swivels, with 84 Men; and were determined to fight their Way through, as they afterwards told us."

On Sunday Morning laſt came into Port from a ſucceſsful Cruize, the Privateer Brig Diana, Captain Sweet.

Since our laſt ſeveral Tranſports arrived here from Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.

The Captains Kerr and Gregory, from this Port, are arrived at Antigua; as is Captain Katter at St. Chriſtophers.

Captain Kerr, about 15 Leagues to Windward of Antigua, was attacked by two ten Gun Privateer Sloops, with whom he fought, off and on, for about eight Hours, and at laſt obliged them both to ſheer off; when two others immediately appeared, but did not come within Gun-ſhot of him, not liking the Reception the two firſt met with. His Men behaved well; none of them were wounded; nor did the Ship receive much Damage.

Arrived at Quebec, The Captains Hardy, Kidd, Kennedy, Forbes, Wyer, Moore, and Sparks, all from this Place.

At Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, Captains Noarth and Marſhall.

Extract of a Letter from Bermuda, June 13, 1761.

"About a Month ago, we were alarmed by the Account of a New-England Lumber Man, who, on his Arrival here, informed, that a Privateer Brigantine chaced him cloſe in Shore, amongſt our Rocks. Some Days after, ſuch a Veſſel was ſeen from the Land, and indeed from Day to Day appeared in the Offing, tho' ſeveral Veſſels arrived from different Ports, but did not ſee her; however, many People were of Opinion, the Veſſel ſo ſeen was a French Privateer, and deſtined to cruize in this Latitude; which Opinion generally prevailing, his Excellency, our Governor, with Advice of the Council, called the Aſſembly, when an Act of Credit paſſed the Legiſlature; two Veſſels were immediately taken into the Service of the Iſland; and in ſix Days were fitted, victualled, manned and ſailed, in a Warlike and compleat Manner; viz. A Ship of 20, and a Brigantine of 12 Guns, with about 200 brave Seamen on board, hardly one in twenty of which but what was capable of taking Charge of either of the Veſſels. They ſcoured the Coaſt but unfortunately the Enemy had left it a Day or two before they ſailed, being, as we were afterwards informed, a French Brigantine, of 16 Guns, and 150 Men. This is the firſt Time of our Coaſt's being inſulted by the Enemy this War; but we are now on our Guard, having Military Stores in great Plenty, and every Thing in Readineſs, ſhould the ſame Privateer, or any other, pay us a ſecond Viſit."

Laſt Night Captain Mitchell arrived here in ſix Weeks from Londonderry, by whom we have London Advices to the 30th of April; but, for Want of Time and Room, we can only inſert this Week what follows, viz.

From the London Gazette Extraordinary.

Whitehall, April 30, 1761.

This Morning the Honourable Captain Barrington, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship Achilles, arrived with the following Letters from Major General Hodgſon, and the Honourable Commodore Keppel, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt.

Belleiſle, 2 o' Clock in the Morning, April 23, 1761.

AS I have juſt had a Note from Commodore Keppel, to inform me that a Frigate will ſail this Day for England, I have only Time to acquaint you, that his Majeſty's Troops under my Command, landed Yeſterday at Five: The Enemy's Attention was ſo diſtracted with our Attempts of landing at different Places, where there was the leaſt Appearance of our being able to ſucceed, that it gave Brigadier Lambert an Opportunity of climbing up a Rock, with a Corps I had left with him for that Purpoſe, if practicable: The Difficulty of mounting had made the Enemy leaſt attentive to that Part.-------Beauclerk's Grenadiers, with their Captain Patterſon, got up before they ſaw what was intended. They immediately marched a Body of 300 Men to attack him. The Grenadiers maintained their Ground till the reſt of Brigadier Lambert's got up. We took three Braſs Field Pieces, and ſome wounded Priſoners. It is impoſſible for me ſufficiently to commend Mr. Lambert's Conduct and gallant Behaviour on the Occaſion; and take the liberty to beg you will recommend him to the King, as an Officer deſerving his Majeſty's Favour. Captain Patterſon has loſt his Arm. I believe our Loſs is not above 30 killed. I am afraid you will not be able to read this Scrawl, as I write it in the Field, the Troops being on their March.

I am, &c. S. HODGSON.

Valiant, in the great Road of Belleiſle, April 23, 1761.

SIR,

I HAD the Honour to write you a Letter by the Acteon Frigate, in which I gave but little Hopes; ſince which Time, the General and myſelf having conſidered, that by attempting a Place where the Mounting the Rocks was juſt poſſible, and where the Enemy were no other ways prepared, from the impracticable Appearance it had to them, than by a Corps of Troops to annoy the Boats in the Attempt, that it carried ſome Degree of Hopes with it, and by making a Diſpoſition for the Attack of their intrenched Bays, and at Sauzon at the ſame Time, which the Arrival of the Tranſports with the Light Horſe enabled me to do, we might poſſibly gain a Footing.

I have now the greateſt Pleaſure in acquainting you, that his Majeſty's Troops have made good a Landing on the Rocks near Point Lomaria; and cannot ſufficiently commend the Spirit and good Behaviour of the Troops in the Attempt; and the Judgment, with which Sir Thomas Stanhope, and the reſt of the Captains of the King's Ships, directed their Fire upon the Hills.

Captain Barrington having been employed in many of the Operations on this Service, I have ſent him Home with this Letter; and beg, Sir, to refer you to him for the Particulars. I have the Honour to be, &c. A. KEPPEL.

N. B. The Acteon Frigate, mentioned in the Beginning of the Letter, is not yet arrived.

A LIST of Officers and Seamen killed, wounded and miſſing, at the Attack on Belleiſle, the 8th of April, 1761.

Order of the Bath, His Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to their High Mightineſſes the States General of the United Provinces; His Miniſters Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs which is ſoon to be opened at the Imperial City of Auxſbourg.

His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has made Choice of the Count of Choiſeul, at preſent his Ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna, to be his Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the ſaid Congreſs.

The King of Pruſſia has named Baron Plotho, at preſent his Miniſter at the Diet at Ratiſbon, and M. Haiſler, his Miniſters Plenipotentiary at the ſaid Congreſs.

LONDON, April 30.

By AUTHORITY, we can aſſure the Public, That Belleiſle is actually taken; and that immediately on the Arrival of the Reinforcements, Colonel Crawford in Conjunction with the Gentlemen abovementioned, made a briſk Attack upon the Citadel, on which the French ſurrendered.

We hear that two Perſons of Diſtinction are named to be reciprocally ſent by the Britiſh and French Courts, to facilitate the Negociations for accompliſhing the great and ſalutary Work of PEACE.

The principal Matters to be inſiſted on by our Plenipotentiaries, it is ſaid, are theſe; that Guadaloupe, with America, be ceded to us; that no Satisfaction be given to the French for any Ships taken previous to the Declaration of War; that no Suſpenſion of Arms ſhall take Place during the Sitting of the Congreſs; that the giving up the Iſland of Minorca ſhall not be looked upon or taken as an Equivalent for the Iſlands of Senegal and Goree; and that this Congreſs may continue three Calendar Months, from the Day of their firſt Meeting.
